GENERAL POLICE ORDER SENT OUT FOR ARREST OF ROSS IN BANK CASE

Action Taken at Request of Circuit Attorney Sidener—
No Indication of Surrender Which, Attorneys Intimated, Would Be When Bond Was Arranged.

MILLSAUGH DUE TO RETURN TOMORROW

Finance Commissioner Expected to Push Audit of Night and Day Accounts
in Which Shortage Was Found.

A general police order was sent out today for the arrest of Donald Ross, 21 years old, who was special deputy State Finance Commissioner for the liquidation of the Night and Day Bank, until a shortage of $70,279 or more was found in the liquidation accounts last week.

Detectives sought Ross in his apartment at Harlan Court, 5451 Dulmar boulevard, early last Sunday morning, when Circuit Attorney Sidener ordered his arrest, but refused their search thereafter when attorneys intimated Ross would surrender as soon as the $25,000 bond demanded of him was arranged.

Nothing further to indicate indication of surrender has been given to Circuit Attorney for several days and Chief of Police O'Brien's order today was at Circuit Attorney Sidener's request.

Finance Commissioner Millsaugh
who has been in Washington on other business of his office,
due to arrive in St. Louis tomorrow and has said he will push the audit of the bank's liquidation accounts to a detailed conclusion.
He has announced the $70,279 shortage last Saturday, he said the audit was incomplete and the discrepancy likely would be found to be greater.

It is thought the return of Commissioner Millsaugh will prod Ross to surrender, if he has that intention to action. It is speculated some quarters that Ross, known to have relatives of wealth, would have little difficulty in providing a $25,000 bond and that his tardiness in surrender is due to an effort to raise the liquidation accounts to combat any charge that might be brought against him.

Former Assistant Circuit Attorney
William Baer, who made the inquiry into Ross' bond, said he had not seen Ross, but "understood" he would be produced. Baer thought the amount of the bond high, but Judge Falkenhainer held otherwise and the amount has not been changed.

Professional bondsmen have been solicited in the matter of a bond
for Ross and have indicated that they will require a deposit of negotiable securities in the sum of the bond
which they will serve him.

PROGRESSIVES NOT READY TO PUT FORD ON THEIR BALLOT

Chairman Says Auto Manufacturer Must First Make Himself Clear on Some of Their Planks.

MORE, Idaho, April 12.—Frank Johnsen, Idaho State chairman of the Progressive party, last night made a denial of a report from Boise Wednesday night that he would file petitions tomorrow regarding the name of Henry Ford on the primary ballot in Idaho.

"We will not nominate Ford until
he has made himself clear on certain planks of our platform," he asserted.

Johnsen coupled his denial with statement that petitions had been filed to county party leaders in Boise Wednesday night and that they had been returned.

Johnsen said, he said, he supported Ford.

VICTOR MILLER FIRED FROM POLICE BOARD BY GOVERNOR FOR 'OFFICIAL MISCONDUCT'

Removal Due to Factionalism Reflected in Morale of the Department and Failure to Co-operate With Other Members, Hyde Explains.

Victor J. Miller was removed from the Police Board this afternoon by
Gov. Hyde for official misconduct.
Following is the telegram the Governor sent Miller informing him of his removal:

"You are hereby removed from the office of Police Commissioner of the city of St. Louis for official misconduct under the provisions of Section 8951, Revised Statutes of Missouri,
1919."

Gov. Hyde later informed a Post-Dispatch reporter that Miller's removal was not due to moral turpitude on his part.

Factionalism in Board.
"His failure to pull together with other members of the board is the reason," said the Governor. "Faction-alism in the board had gotten to such a pass that it was having effect upon the morale of officers of the department."

In political circles it was stated that a recent movement started by Miller's friends to have him restored to the presidency of the board had widened the split in the board.

The Governor's authority is based upon a decision by the State Supreme Court that the Governor, under section 8951 of the revised statutes, "may remove a Police Commissioner upon being fully satisfied that the Commissioner charged is guilty of official misconduct."

Miller was removed from the office of president of the Police Board
April 25, 1922, after he had served at the head of the board for 14 months, and he was then elected treasurer. His removal from the presidency followed demands on Gov.
Hyde for such action. Miller had been taken to task by members of the board at St. Louis High School for a public address he had made at King's Highway Christian Church, in which he said he knew of an immoral club of boys and girls at the high school.

Miller was succeeded in the presidency by Philip H. Brockman. Officers noticed the spirit of factionalism that developed in the board.
At trials of police officers, Miller part, but merely sat with the other members. He and Brockman did not speak to each other at the open meetings of the board.

Miller, before his demotion, had been at the head of the board and was maintained at the head of the board and tried to get his official scalp. Since Miller's demotion, President Brockman has seemed to have the Governor's ear.

Movement by Miller's Friends.
Personal friends of Miller at luncheon last Monday started a movement under the name of "law and order" to have Miller restored to the presidency of the board. Harry L. Salisbury, 3900 Connecticut street, whose candidacy for the Republican nomination for City Collector was backed by Miller, was one of the principal speakers. Salisbury was defeated in the primaries.

Word reached the Governor that Miller had inspired the meeting and the Governor is said "to have resented that any attempt to have Miller restored to the presidency of the board would be a "loke."

A permanent organization, the Law and Order League, was formed at a subsequent meeting and spokesmen for the league declared that it was not intended to be an organization to back Miller. Other members said there was an element of membership which wanted to seize the opportunity afforded by the league to back Miller.

FREEDOM OF AIR QUESTION TO BE PUT TO ILLINOIS COURT

Dwight (Ill.) Banker Seeks Injunction Against Amateur Transmitter Who Interferes With Receiving.

RADIO EXPERTS TO ATTEND THE TRIAL

Case Expected to Be Heard
Next Week—Town Divided Over Controversy
—Defendant Has License.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
DWIGHT, Ill., April 12.—Freedom of the air will be the issue when the Circuit Court of Livingston County convenes at Pontiac for the April term next week, and the first injunction suit ever instituted to restrain an amateur from "using the air,"
will be heard.

Among those who will attend the trial are Secretary of Commerce
H. C. Hoover, Mitchell Lewis, machine gun manufacturer of Racine
and New York; Hiram Percy Maxim, president of the American Radio League, and K. B. Warner, secretary of the League.

The case is this: Edward Mc-
Williams, president of the State Bank of Dwight, last November applied for an injunction to restrain G. W. Wille, Bergman, 18 years old, an amateur wireless operator at Dwight, from using his transmitting station because it is alleged to have interfered with the receiving of radio telephone service in the Williams home.

Couldn't Get Election Returns.
The particular time specified in McWilliams' bill of particulars is election night of last November, when it is charged that Wille, a transmitter, seriously interfered with the receiving of election returns.

Irving Herriott, counsel for Bergman, Herriott stated that the case was a demurrer and the case, when it came up for preliminary hearing in January, was put over until the April term.

Immediately after the case was
for California and has not returned,
while Bergman has gone his merry way transmitting when he chose and otherwise enjoying the fruit and unrestricted privileges of the air.

The demurrer stated that there was no allegation in the bill of complaint that the radio-sending apparatus of the defendant was not properly constructed, was not properly operated and was not constructed and operated in accordance with the laws of the United States; that there was no allegation that the defendant negligently or carelessly operated his sending apparatus.

Meanwhile, Dwight is divided by the residents of the town seem to sympathize with McWilliams and they are owners of radio receiving sets.
"The amateur transmitter is an important link in the national chain," said a spokesman today, while seated among the regular wire service of a community breaks down. There aren't enough professional broadcasters about the country to fulfill the needs and so in these times
when the regular wire service collapses, as in cases of storms or floods, the amateur springs into the breach and "carries on."

Importance of Broadcaster.
"Recently all the wires into Dayton, Ia., were down. If there had been no amateur transmitter in that city then, the town would have been completely shut off from the rest of the world. As it was, it established outside communication almost immediately."

"This case will decide whether the amateur transmitter will survive
and be why radio experts from all over the world are so vitally interested in it. That is why the American Radio League employed Mr.
Herriott to represent me in the action and will take the case to the United States Supreme Court if necessary."

"Now Mr. McWilliams' allegations that I was transmitting on last election night between the hours of 7:30 and 10 o'clock are untrue. Those are the silent hours and I have always observed them. My instrument is always silent between those hours."

"The set I have now cost me about $1000 and represents a lot of work.
I can tell you, I have done a pretty well, too, for the Radio Relay League has placed me in charge of the northern district of Illinois,
which comprises 11 counties, Cook,
Will, Kane, Kane, Kane, Kane, Pace, Kendall Grundy La Salle, Mc-Lean and Livingston."

Secretary Hoover, I understand,
will testify as to the value of amateur radio.

BULGARIA PLANS TO COMPEL COMMUNISTS TO PRACTICE COMMUNISM

By the Associated Press.
SOFIA, April 12.
THE practice of communism
by avowed communists themselves would be made compulsory by a measure which the Government is soon to present to Parliament.

Premier Stamboulsky, in announcing the prospective law,
said it would provide for the expropriation of "communists'"
property in each locality in which there are at least 10 persons professing the communistic creed. These would be compelled to live in colonies established by the Government. Each member would be forced to share equally
in the labor of production as well as in its fruits.

"Bunch" players of the races are reported to have received a severe jolt today in St. Louis as well as throughout the country when Friday 13th, 2-year-old gelding owned by Montfort Jones of Kentucky, failed to finish in the money in the first race at Bowie, Md. The horse reported to have been backed down to $4 to $5 in the poolrooms,
although he had started in two previous races and shown indifferent performances.

One layer of odds here recalls,
however, that on a certain Friday
last year a then 2-year-old, Black Friday, brought home the money
for his backers.

The race today was won by Vanity Bag with Julia M. second and Glady's V. third.

ASSOCIATE OF GANG MEN FOUND SHOT TO DEATH IN COUNTY

$216,780 IS GIVEN
TO FUND TO CATCH
SLAYERS OF POLICE

436 St. Louis Business Firms Have Thus Far Subscribed to $250,000 in Rewards
to Safeguard Officers.

BELIEVED PLAN WILL HELP TO HALT CRIME

Project, Fathomed by Brockman, Receives Generous Support and Many Firms
Offer to Increase Pledges.

A total of $216,780 so far has been subscribed by 436 St. Louis business firms toward a fund of $250,000 for payments of rewards to persons who bring about the arrest and conviction of murderers of policemen
killed in performance of duty.

The fund was proposed last October by Philip H. Brockman, president of the Board of Police Commissioners, as a moral and financial obligation of citizens to protect more fully the lives of policemen.
Officers of many firms, in submitting their contributions, declared their willingness to increase their subscriptions if it should become necessary. Many of them expressed the opinion that the effect of the fund would be to check major crime in St. Louis.

Brockman's plan, as he submitted it to approximately 3000 firms to whom he wrote letters, is to have the fund available so that the subscribers have been given to understand that they will not be called upon for more than 10 per cent of their pledge in any one year.

"For instance," Brockman explained to a Post-Dispatch reporter,
"the subscribers have been given to understand that they will not be called upon for more than 10 per cent of their pledge in any one year."

The average reward offered for the arrest and conviction of the murderer of a policeman is from $1500 to $2500. Let us take the maximum. That would be just 1 per cent of the $250,000 fund. If the murderer of the police officer would not be apprehended within a reasonable time and $2500 was offered, and the murderer captured and convicted, the amount drawn on $1000 pledge would be 1 per cent, or $10.

"The maximum to be drawn on a $1000 pledge in any one year would be 10 per cent, or $100. However, in my judgment, the moral effect
which the reward fund has already had and will have in the future, will deter the murdering of police officers, and I feel sure that in the present year no one will be called upon to pay out an assessment."

"I am more than pleased with the hearty response my suggestion received. I found that the business men to whom I appealed were not only ready to back up the Police Department with their cash, but they commended the idea most favorably."

The Police Board has received hundreds of letters indicating the fund and many of the subscribers have announced that they will increase their subscriptions if the amount sought does not prove sufficient."

Brockman said he conceived the idea of the reward fund following the slaying of Detective-Sergeant Harry W. Lemken, head of the police homicide squad, who was shot to death at Tenth and Bidde streets
July 26, 1922, after he had stopped
Louis Trider, a notorious police character, who was in an automobile
with another man and a woman.

Trider later killed a Deputy Sheriff at Lexington Junction, Mo., and was himself killed Oct. 12, 1922, when he resisted arrest for the Lemken murder in East St. Louis.

PIEST KILLED BY HIS ASSISTANT AFTER QUARREL

Kalamazoo (Mich.) Clergyman Shot When He Orders Subordinate to Leave Parish House.

By the Associated Press.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., April 13.—The Rev. Father Charles Dillon, charged with the slaying of his superior, the Rev. Father Henry O'Neill, pastor of St. Augustine's Catholic Church, here last night, waived examination when arraigned in Municipal Court late today. He was bound over to the Circuit Court and will be arraigned before Circuit Judge Weimer later.

The killing of Father O'Neill culminated what Father Dillon told police was "13 months of ill-treatment" during which, he said, Father O'Neill "treated me like a little boy, and assumed towards me the attitude of a czar."

The Rev. Father Dillon, who is being held, told police that the tragedy occurred at the evening meal. Father O'Neill, his assistant, and Father McCullough were at the table, he said, and after a quarrel Father O'Neill ordered Dillon to go upstairs, pack his grip, and leave the parish house. Instead, Dillon went to his room, obtained a revolver and returned to the dining room.

"I intended to give him a chance to confess and repent before I killed him," police report Dillon as saying, "but as I advanced into the room with a revolver extended, I saw him grab a salt cellar to throw at me, and I fired."

As the priest's body slipped to the floor, Dillon, according to his story, gave Father McCullough a phial containing holy oils and told him to administer the sacrament of extreme unction at once.

Father O'Neill, who was about 56 years old, succeeded to St. Augustine's pastorate in November, 1921, following the death of Monsignor E. A. Brien. Dillon, following his expulsion as a member of the Carthusian order from France, traveled in many countries as a missionary, coming here from Battle Creek 13 years ago.

The Rev. Father William Murphy is in temporary charge of parish affairs. Father McCullough was recovering today from a collapse that followed the tragedy.

"I knelt before God and prayed that something would happen to that man," Father Dillon was quoted as saying in a statement to Prosecutor Stephen H. Wattles. "I had no right to kill Father O'Neill, not one right in the world."

"I never did any harm in my life; never took a cent from anybody. The gentle little children all over Michigan will tell you I love me."

Asked how long he had possessed the revolver, Father Dillon said, "Not very long."

"Did you purchase it for the purpose of killing Father O'Neill?" asked the prosecutor.

"Yes, for the purpose," replied the priest. "Conditionally for the purpose. Not absolutely, to say it was going to happen; I hoped it would not."

Women Voters to Be Asked to Back League of Nations

Democratic Members Will Propose Indorsement of Whole Covenant When World Court Resolution Is Presented to Convention.

By MARGUERITE MARTYN.
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

DEMOCRATIC and other women proponents of the League of Nations are hiding their time until after Lord Robert Cecil's speech might before offering their amendment to the resolution of Miss Ruth Morgan asking the League of Women Voters' indorsement of President Harding's proposal to enter the world court.

The amendment asking for the acceptance of the entire league covenant as it now stands probably will be offered Saturday morning—if not in the original resolution, to explain that their vote is not to be interpreted as limiting them to a policy approving this most limited step in international co-operation.

In an interview upon his arrival yesterday, Lord Robert Cecil said he believed the United States could safely go into the league world without being in any way committed to the League of Nations covenant.

He said, "When the world court was established, elaborate provisions were made to keep it entirely separate from all other departments of the league. It corresponds to the judicial branch of a government which in any country, as in yours, is kept as far separated from the other branches as possible."

Cecil Enthusiastic.
While Secretary Hoover appeared to take great pains to minimize the step the United States would take in entering the world court, the Britisher, enthusiastic about any part of the League of Nations, declared that, though its powers are limited to the settlement of legal differences, there were many phases of political causes of war that could be adjudicated in this court.

He is a tall, stoop-shouldered, long-armed man with long aquiline nose. As he sat hunched up in a deep chair he appeared to be all hands and limbs. He assumed an attitude of most serious attentiveness to his woman interviewer.

"I have always been a most vehement advocate of woman suffrage," he said, "and welcome the opportunity of talking to women about this problem. I believe women are passionately anxious about the peace of the world."

When told of remarks his compatriot, Sir Auckland, had made to this same gathering of women last year to the effect that women needed to learn a great deal more than they do about international questions before they mediated in them, Sir Robert retorted: "For that at the time of the shooting Father Dillon replied that Father McCullough was present, but countered:

"What do you want of witnesses? I'll tell the truth. We were eating. He told me to get out. The last thing he said was 'Pack up and go.' I said 'All right. I will go.' I did go and pack up and he didn't like the packing in my hand. I pulled the gun out and 'bing, bang.' He got it right here (indicating the lower abdomen.) He said: 'I'm shot. Father, I'm shot.' Right in the midst of that he seized the salt cellar to throw at me; 'bing, bang' he dropped against the window."

Father Dillon, according to the prosecutor, admitted he had been drinking.

matter, all of us could be better educated."

Silent on U. S. Politics.
When asked, "Do you think the people of this country ever really have expressed themselves with regard to the League of Nations, hasn't it been used as a political football?" he replied, as he has at all previous interviews, that he had no opinions on United States politics and would not, in deference to the hospitality extended him, express them if he had.

An hour's heated discussion of the subject of equal ownership of property between married persons was the only hitch yesterday in the machine-like adoption of all recommendations submitted to the convention by the standing committee. The Uniform Laws Committee asked the convention to pledge itself to support legislation providing an equal interest of spouses in each other's real estate and a half interest and control by each spouse of all property acquired after marriage by either or both spouses, with power in each spouse to devise and bequeath one-half interest in this property.

Caused Wrangle Last Year.
It is the same recommendation which caused the same wrangle last year. I remember so well that word, "spouse." Last year it was referred back for further study. Yesterday it was adopted in the plan of work. But husbands may defer their claims for a time at least. There is no such legislative bill pending upon which women may immediately expend this new threat.

The women's industry committee offered as one of their recommendations a resolution asking the league to call upon Congress to enact a minimum wage amendment to the constitution to prevent the industry brought about by the Supreme Court decision Monday, in referring to the resolution, a member of the committee said: "We believe there are still in this country brains enough, hearts enough, souls enough to make justice to women constitutional."

Another important piece of work undertaken in the behalf of a child labor amendment to the constitution.

A vivid personality just arrived upon the scene is Mrs. Clifford P. Shot. She has a great mass of red hair and wears an enveloping Pusey coat, the pattern of which is made more pronounced with outlines of steel beads. She will speak at the banquet this evening with Lord Robert Cecil, Mrs. Thomas G. Winter and others, and it is said her speech is a red-hot indictment of failure to enforce prohibition.

Japanese Princess Recovering.
PARIS, April 13.—Princess Kitashirakawa, sister of the Emperor of Japan, has so far recovered from the injuries she suffered in the automobile accident near Bernay that she is considered out of danger.

Prince Asako, who also was hurt in the accident, has improved greatly.

Detective, War Veteran, Killed.
EL PASO, Tex., April 13.—Detective Frank Burns, veteran of the Persian expedition to Mexico and of the World War, died here last night from wounds received Wednesday in a gun fight with two Mexicans alleged to be drug peddlers. He was a native of Pennsylvania. His father died at Philadelphia Wednesday night.

HOOVER WONT CALL BUILDING CONFERENCE

Secretary Says Such Official Action Might Have Unexpected Harmful Results.

In a letter received today by E. J. McMahon, secretary of the Master Builders' Association, Secretary of Commerce Hoover refused the request of the Associated General Contractors, who made a nation-wide appeal for conference of construction industry interests at Washington.

The letter is in reply to a telegram sent by the St. Louis organization of this national group on March 23 last, setting forth the increase in material and labor costs in the past 12 months and indicating the imminence of a "buyers' strike" unless a general lessening of building costs is accomplished.

Construction Vital to Country.
"This department is alive to the necessity of large construction due to the deficiencies accumulated over many years, and I would deplore any official action which might have unexpected results," Secretary Hoover writes. "It is vital for the country that our construction industry should proceed in an orderly manner without inflation in prices or costs, or such inflation would inevitably bring about a buyers' strike."

The Secretary suggests as an aid to private construction a withholding of Government projects at present, "as far as possible," in order to give "a clearer field to private construction."

"Before such a conference is assembled," he added, "I feel we should have before us from the trades themselves some sort of program as to what might be accomplished by such a conference."

View of the Builders.
In the telegram sent from the Master Builders' Association asking a conference, McMahon said, "Stagnation in construction industry will result shortly unless present tendency to higher material costs and excessive wages is checked."

"Cost in building material has increased 100 per cent, since 1915 as a basis," McMahon said today. "It jumped to 300 per cent in the spring of 1920, and the buyers' strike resulted. There was a depression in the building industry. A year ago the material cost dropped to about 150 per cent, and it now is back again to nearly 200 per cent. This, with the return of building labor trades to their peak of a year ago in wages, has caused construction men to fear another buyers' strike."

McMahon said Hoover's letter apparently indicated a desire on the Secretary's part to have a definite program submitted as to just what was desired to help the situation.

"He feels unless this is done some things may be brought up which would be dangerous," he said. "With the submission of a program, he may change it so as to eliminate any dangerous partisan proposals."

Will Formulate Program.
McMahon said the next step would be the formation of this program, which probably would be submitted through the national organization of contractors. Building, he pointed out, is at the height of an unprecedented boom at present, and contractors as well as labor's interests, do not want high costs to interfere with continued building.

BANK WITH DEPOSITS OF $141,000 CLOSED

Cashier of Ethel (Mo.) Institution Gone—Indications of Shortage Reported.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
ETHEL, Mo., April 12.—The Bank of Ethel yesterday closed its doors by order of the board of directors, following the discovery of a discrepancy in its accounts during absence from the city of F. L. Summers, cashier. Summers last Sunday went to Chicago with three carloads of cattle and has not since been heard from by the directors.

The State Department of Finance sent an examiner on request of the directors, and this man today is making an audit of the bank's accounts. The bank, which was founded in 1857, has deposits of $141,000 and paid-up capital stock of $50,000. Its combined resources approximate $150,000.

J. R. Heaton, president, said there were indications of a shortage, but that the extent of this discrepancy was not known.

Summers, who has a wife and family here, has been cashier about 15 years.

Dry Agents Seize Still on Farm.
Federal prohibition agents yesterday raided the farm of George Andrews near Chesterfield, and found hidden in the woods a diamond still. Andrews was arrested. When neighboring farms were raided a week ago some empty vats were found on the Andrews farm. The return was made on anonymous information and the dismantled still was found.

McMahon said Hoover's letter apparently indicated a desire on the Secretary's part to have a definite program submitted as to just what was desired to help the situation.

"He feels unless this is done some things may be brought up which would be dangerous," he said. "With the submission of a program, he may change it so as to eliminate any dangerous partisan proposals."

McMahon said the next step would be the formation of this program, which probably would be submitted through the national organization of contractors. Building, he pointed out, is at the height of an unprecedented boom at present, and contractors as well as labor's interests, do not want high costs to interfere with continued building.

The odds are 4 to 1 against you Bleeding gums herald Pyrorrhea's coming

When the gums bleed, be on your guard.

That's Nature's warning of Pyrorrhea's coming.

The odds are 4 to 1 against you, for Pyrorrhea strikes four persons out of every five past forty, and thousands younger, menacing their teeth and undermining their health.

At the first sign of bleeding gums, consult your dentist. Then brush your teeth, morning and night, with Forhan's For the Gums, a scientific dentifrice that, if used consistently and used in time, will prevent Pyrorrhea or check its progress.

Forhan's For the Gums is the formula of R. J. Forhan, D. D. S. Used as a dentifrice, it will keep your teeth white and clean and your gums firm and healthy. It is pleasant to the taste. At all drugstores, 35c and 60c in tubes.

WILL AID HOUSING

Government Bill Provides Relief for Shortage in Homes.

Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 13.—The Government, spurred by the outcry from all sides in regard to the shortage of homes and by the defeat of three bills in recent years, has introduced a bill to the House, which was introduced to the Senate last night,
to meet the situation. The bill would empower the Secretary of Health to contribute a sum not to exceed $5 per dwelling, provided by the local authorities. The bill would also provide for a period of 20 years,
during which the Secretary would exercise power to give grants to local authorities in contributing toward the cost of housing schemes. The bill would also be empowered to assume the annual loss on such grants for 15 months. The local authorities would be empowered to assume the value of the houses disposed of at $1500 each, and they also be empowered to acquire land for building purposes.

Annual Additions Reported for 15 County Churches.

St. Louis, April 13.—The Methodist Church in St. Louis reported an increase of 263 during the past year.
The annual conference of the Episcopal (South) churches in St. Louis County, was reported last night at a quarterly conference of the St. Louis County Division of the St. Louis District of the M. E. Church.
This brings the membership of the 15 churches to 15,000. Dr. A. H. Post,
new superintendent of the Missouri Anti-Slavery League, was introduced to the conference.

A similar meeting will be held tonight at the Emmanuel M. E. (South) Church, 2715 McCausland avenue, by 16 churches in the St. Louis district of the district.

Now, a Quick
Quaker OatsCooks in 3 to 5 minutes
The quickest cooking oats in the world

Now your grocer has Quaker Oats in two styles. One the kind you have always known—the other is Quick Quaker.

Quick Quaker cooks in from 3 to 5 minutes. And it cooks to perfection. So it is almost like a ready-cooked dish.

No other oat flakes on the market cook anywhere near so quickly. The two styles are identical in quality and flavor. Both are flaked from the finest grains only—just the rich, plump, flaky oats. A bushel of choice oats yields but ten pounds of these delicious flakes.

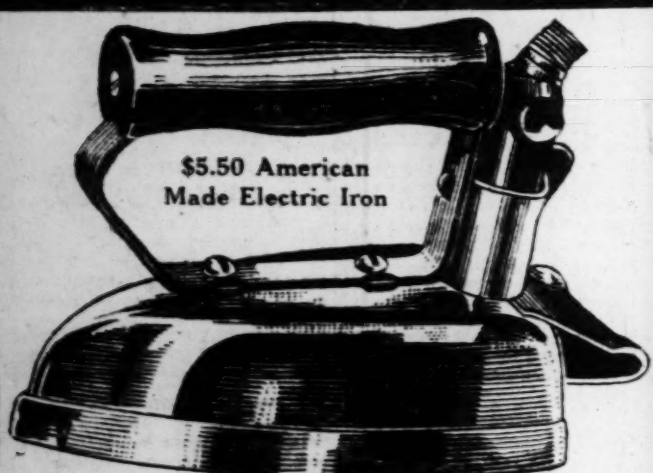

But in Quick Quaker the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And those small, thin flakes cook quickly.

Ask for Quick Quaker if you want this style. Your grocer has both. But always get Quaker Oats for their delightful flavor.

ROBBED TRAIN IN ARKANSAS

He Was an Associate of "Quail Hunter" Kennedy, Killed in a Similar Robbery.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 12.—Felix (Big Boy) Cutcher of Wynne, Ark., was sentenced to 25 years in the penitentiary by Federal Judge Trierber here yesterday, after a jury had found him guilty of participating in the robbery of the Memphis-St. Louis, Missouri Pacific passenger train on the night of July 22, 1921, near Vandale, Ark. His attorney announced he would not appeal.

His conviction was largely upon testimony of a St. Louis taxicab driver. The loot obtained was less than $200. Six men participated. Cutcher was known to be an associate of Jack (Quail Hunter) Kennedy and Harvey Logan, who were shot and killed by postoffice inspectors on Nov. 2 last, after they had held up a Frisco passenger train near Wittenberg, Mo., and had looted the mail car. The postoffice inspectors had been forewarned and were in ambush at the scene.

A letter discussing plans for the robbery was found among Kennedy's effects. It was signed "B. B." and was presumed to have been written by Cutcher, who was called "Big Boy" because he weighed 256 pounds.

MEETING OF GOVERNORS PLANNED

By the Associated Press.

SPOKANE, Wash., April 12.—Gov. Louis F. Hart received a reply yesterday from Gov. Davis of Kansas to the suggestion the Washington Governor sent to Governors of five states having minimum wage laws for women that they call a meeting of Governors to confer on a constitutional amendment to establish the validity of such laws. Gov. Davis suggests that the conference be held at Kansas City, Mo., or Topeka, Kan., after July 1. Favorable replies were received last night from the Governors of Wisconsin and Oregon.

TACTICAL VICTORY OVER GANGSTERS
WON BY SIDENER

Circuit Attorney Obtains Indictment of Six Hoganites
in Advance of Their Preliminary Trial.

A tactical victory over the Hogan gangsters was won yesterday by the Circuit Attorney when he obtained the indictment of six members of the gang on charges of carrying concealed weapons.

Instead of being able to delay prosecution, the gangsters now face a speedy trial. Further, the Circuit Attorney and the police will obtain an early ruling on whether an artifice adopted by the gangsters im-munizes them from prosecution under the concealed weapons law.

Tactics Now in Use.
Recently gangsters, at the approach of police officers, have been drawing weapons from their pockets and proffering them to the officers, or tossing them on the floor of an automobile and then successfully pleading in court that the weapons were not concealed, but exposed.

The six gangsters arrested—John (Kink) Connell, Harry Greenberg, Humbert Costello, Pat Scanlan,
Frank Bova and Charles Mercurio
—adopted the latter subterfuge. Police who arrested them found six revolvers on the floor of an automobile in which they were riding.
The Circuit Attorney will press for a ruling that weapons so carried violate the law.

The men were arrested 14 hours
after the bombardment of the home of their leader, Edward J. (Jelly Roll) Hogan, 3035 Cass avenue, and were presumed to have started gunning for "Egan's Rats," whom they held responsible.

Preliminary Trial Agreed.
The men recently gave bond under warrants following their arrests and were to have had a preliminary hearing today before Judge Calvin Miller in the Court of Criminal Connection. The Circuit Attorney anticipating that they would impose delay, which would postpone a decision in the matter indefinitely. The men already had adopted obstructive tactics by asking and obtaining a change of venue when they were arraigned last week.

When the men appeared today the Circuit Attorney continued the hearing until next Friday to give time for the preparation of the indictments and bench warrants, while keeping the men under bond. When they appear next Friday they will be rearrested under the indictments
and compelled to furnish a new bond.
They then will have no preliminary hearing, but will face trial in Circuit Court and, if the Circuit Attorney can manage, speedily.

Arrests of Criminals "on Sight"
Given Setback by Police Judge.
The police policy of arrest of known criminal characters "on sight" as a measure for breaking up gang warfare and crime in general was nullified yesterday when Police Judge Homer freed three negroes of a charge of vagrancy,
and nolle prossed a like charge against a fourth.

One of the negroes had been arrested 107 times on suspicion and another 14 times. Each showed place of residence and some money,
and the Judge held that they could not properly be charged with vagrancy.

Assistant City Counselor Gayer
said the result of the trial rendered the police method impotent as all criminals and gangsters could establish residence and most could produce a visible means of support.
Chief of Detectives Hengland said
the acquittals were a "sad blow"
to law enforcement and took "a valuable weapon" from the police.

CATHOLIC WOMEN OPPOSE EQUAL RIGHTS AMENDMENT

Council of St. Louis Archdiocese Approves Educational Liberty and Eight-Hour Day.

Opposition to any blanket amendment giving equal rights to women was voiced yesterday by the Council of Catholic Women in the Archdiocese of St. Louis at the closing session of its first annual convention in Hotel Statler.

A majority vote of the 675 women present supported expressions favoring educational liberty, the eight-hour day and a living wage.
The convention voted to authorize a committee to investigate all bills before the State Legislature at each session.

Officers of the permanent board of directors were elected as follows:
Mrs. W. T. Donovan, president;
Miss Stella Gillick, first vice president; Mrs. J. P. Crowley, second vice president; Mrs. John Dorn, third vice president; Mrs. Henry Pieper of St. Charles County, fourth
vice president; Mrs. E. Wiler, St.
Genevieve, fifth vice president; Mrs.
Regina Dougherty, secretary; Mrs.
A. O'Halloran, treasurer.

Five-Year-Old Boy Hit by Truck.
Richard A. Branch, 5-year-old son of Joseph Branch, 4130 Peck street, suffered a probable fracture of the right thigh and severe cuts and bruises when struck by a motor truck at 11:45 a. m. yesterday, while crossing Sherman place in front of his grandmother's home, to the 1800 block Joseph Dinkelkamp,

PARIS MIDINETTES ON STRIKE FOR WAGE OF $10 A WEEK

Powder Puffs and Nails Are Used by Sentimentalists in Clash With Municipal Guards (Copyright, 1935.)

PARIS, April 12.—The Rue de la Paix wears a mournful aspect. The midinettes are absent. They have gone farther afield, have abandoned work and are parading boulevards when not listening to fiery speeches by labor leaders. Although on strike and very bitter against big dress-making houses which refuse to grant them what they consider a living wage, the little seamstresses have lost none of their traditional grace. They look with ironical smiles on tin-hatted policemen out to preserve order and only glaze at the sight of burly municipal guards mobilized as a precaution against their possible unruliness. The only clash so far between the midinettes and the police resulted in one of the latter having a powder puff poked into his face while a few fair strikers used their nails on municipal guards who tried to prevent them from gathering outside dressmaking establishments. It appears that the highest wages received by the midinettes is less than $8 a week and they demand $10. Apprentices get only $2 a week. As it is the beginning of the dress-making season, the strike causes much inconvenience to the 50 Paris couturiers affected who refuse, however, to yield, declaring that in spite of high prices charged profits are swallowed by taxes and expenses.

COURT RULES AGAINST 'PORK BARREL' HIGHWAY

Commission May Deviate From Legislative Plan When Necessary, Westhues Decides.

By the Jefferson City Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, April 13.—The State Highway Commission in laying out the routes of the 1500-mile State primary road system, designed to connect the population centers of Missouri, may deviate from the legislative route designations whenever necessary in the interest of direct-ness and economy of construction,
Judge Westhues, in the Circuit Court of Cole County, held here today.
The Westhues decision, which is the first judicial construction of the centennial road law, is a victory for the forces which have fought for a real highway system as against the pork-barrel methods advocated by
"mud roaders," in the special road

session of the Legislature and since.
The Westhues decision was handed down in the suit of State Senator Irwin of Jefferson City and Atorney Emil P. Rosenberger of Montgomery City and O. W. Wilson of St.
Charles, on behalf of 12 residents of St. Charles County and six of Warren County, to enjoin the highway commission from beginning construction of the St. Louis-Kansas City cross State highway on the route it had selected.
Attorneys for the commission demurred to the petition of the plaintiffs, and Judge Westhues sustained
the demurrer. Irwin and Wilson, who were in court today, gave no
notice that they would appeal to the Supreme Court without going further into the merits of the case in the lower court.
St. Louisans appear for board.
The persons named as plaintiffs
in the suit reside along the route of the Boone's Lick trail, an old route from St. Charles to Glasgow.
They contend that the Highway Commission, in laying out a route for the St. Louis-Kansas City road, which, as contemplated, would go through or near St. Charles, Fulton, Columbia and Eminence to Kansas City, strayed from one to 10 miles of the historic trail in many places.

Their road was designated as a State highway through all of the counties traversed, they contend,
and if a primary road is going through those counties it should follow theirs.
L. Newton Wylder, counsel to the commission, Frank Hays, his assistant, Henry Davis, Assistant Attorney-General, former State Senator Howard Gray of Carthage, Roy Britton, counsel to the State Automobile Club, and Robert Burkham of St. Louis, appeared in court for the Highway Commission.
They demurred to the petition on three grounds, that the plaintiffs have no right to bring such an injunction suit which could only properly be brought by the Attorney-General, that the plaintiffs have no cause of action in that they did not claim to be damaged by the action of the commission, and that the plaintiffs and the commission have no power to limit the discretion of the commission, as conferred by Section 23 of the Centennial Road Law.
That section contains a proviso that "the highway commission is authorized and empowered to designate the routes and types of the highway system, and to construct higher type roads of approximately 1500 miles connecting the principal population centers of the State and to make such changes in the routes

of said roads as it may deem necessary in the interest of economy and directness of routes."
Given Special Powers.
In deciding the case, Judge West-
hues said, "The State highway law gives the highway commission special powers with reference to the 1500-mile primary system, and indoubtedly permits it to change such routes in the interest of economy and directness."
"As to the other roads, of course,
it can go around hills and so on out
with reference to the primary system it has more power. As I see it that is the only question in this case, the demurrer is sustained."

monument commemorating the planting in Potomac Park of the Japanese cherry trees, which at this time of year are one of the delights
of the Washington landscape.
It developed that the approval of the Fine Arts Commission, which speaks the last word as to outdoor beauty in the capital, was needed
before the gift could be accepted.

But when plans of the memorial were laid before the commission, it decided it would rather have something different. It sent back word accordingly that it would like to receive drawings of a smaller and much-altered monument instead.
Members of the commission are now wondering why they have heard nothing more about it.

How Much Should Your Spring Suit Cost You?

It's common knowledge that wholesale costs are advancing steadily, due to higher market quotations on woolens, an increased tariff and other good, logical reasons. And, in most stores, retail prices are going up in proportion.

But not at Schmitz & Shroder's. By merchandising on a margin of unprecedented closeness, we are able to hold our prices down to last year's level. Instead of raising our prices to meet rising wholesale costs, we are working for more sales at a smaller margin of profit. Though we'll make less per sale, we'll make just as much on the volume, and the advantage goes into your pocket.

To pay less than these prices, you must sacrifice quality, but to pay a cent more is needless extravagance.

'Smart Cut' 2-Pants Suits

Falls Dead After Making Prayer.
By the Associated Press.
BENTONVILLE, Ark., April 12.—Shortly after making the closing prayer at the weekly prayer meeting at the First Baptist Church Wednesday night, J. W. Ford, 63 years old, fell back into his pew and died before a physician could reach him.

Death was attributed to heart disease.
Requests Use of Phone; Robs Safe.
A man who asked permission to use the telephone in the office of the Standard Artificial Limb Co., 1910 Olive street, yesterday, was observed a few seconds later looting an open safe. The cashier, Miss Agnes Briscoe of 744 Walton avenue, called for help and when the man ran out she pursued him to Ninth street and then south to an alley and west a half block, where he outran her. He took $24 cash and some checks from the safe. The checks were found later where he had tossed them aside in front of 1915 Pine street.

MRS. HARRIETTE ELZA GALE GRANTED DIVORCE AND ALIMONY
Wife of Coke and Chemical Company Officer Also to Get Custody of Child.
Mrs. Harriette Elza Gale of 5602 Kingsbury court was granted a divorce at Clayton today from Charles J. Gale, treasurer of the St. Louis Coke & Chemical Co., on allegations of general indignities. She also was granted restoration of her maiden name, Draper; custody of their daughter, Edith, 7 years old; $250 a month for the support of the child and $1000 gross alimony.

Gale was represented by counsel. Mrs. Gale testified they were married in 1912 in Boston and had been here 18 months. Her husband, she declared, treated her harshly, endangering her health, and had shown no affection for or interest in her for two years, often sitting at home all evening in silence or remaining away for indefinite periods without saying where he was going.

SUES FOR $40,750 INSURANCE
Widow of Baker Alleges His Death Was Result of Accident.
Two suits for a total of $40,750 on accident insurance policies held by John E. McKinney, wealthy baker, who died Nov. 13 last of blood poisoning following an injury of his right foot, were filed yesterday in the Circuit Court by his widow, Mrs. Ida McKinney of Tulsa, Ok. It is declared that McKinney's death was due to an infection which resulted from removing a callous from the ball of his foot with a knife, a month before his death. The suits are directed against the Fidelity and Casualty Co. of New York on a $25,000 policy, and the Employers' Liability Insurance Co., Ltd., of London, on a $7500 policy. The suits sought represent the face of the policy, attorney fees and damages for vexatious delay.

NEW ORLEANS, April 12.—Gen. Julian Carr, Commander in Chief, told the Confederate veterans' convention yesterday of the part played in the Civil War by the four brothers and four sisters of Mrs. Abraham Lincoln, wife of the United States President. All of the four brothers served in the Confederate army and each of the four sisters was married to a Confederate soldier.

Dr. George Todd Lincoln was a surgeon in a hospital in Richmond, Va., during the war, and is buried in Camden, S. C. Samuel B. Todd was with the Louisiana troops and was killed in the battle at Corinth, Miss. Emily Todd, still living, at Lexington, Ky., is the widow of Gen. Ren Harding Helm, commander of the famous Orphans' Brigade of Kentucky. Gen. Helm was killed in the battle of Chickamauga in 1863. Martha Todd was the wife of C. H. White, who served with the Alabama troops. Katherine Todd was the wife of Wallace Kerr, who served with Gen. Lee throughout the war, and the fourth sister was the wife of Col. H. Dalton of Alabama, who also was in Gen. Lee's command.

50-Year Sentence for Murder.
 By the Associated Press.
 CARTHAGE, Tex., April 12.—Alfred Simpson, charged with murder in connection with the killing of Dr. Al Parrish, physician of Garrison, Tex., was convicted by a jury here yesterday and sentenced to 50 years in the penitentiary. Jess Rabin was convicted of a similar charge and sentenced to 99 years imprisonment last Saturday.

EMPLOYMENT GAIN IN ST. LOUIS SHOWN BY U. S. REPORT

Condition Here, as Everywhere, "Healthy and Robust," According to Department of Labor.

SCARCITY OF FARM WORKERS RECORDED

Building Trades Shortage at Hannibal—Mines at Joplin Resume Activities—Conditions in Other Cities.

Post-Dispatch Bureau.
20-23 Wyatt Bldg.
WASHINGTON, April 13. — St.
Louis and Missouri offer examples of the "healthy and robust" employment condition which has been found by the Department of Labor,
in a survey for March, to exist throughout the country. There is every prospect, the department reported today, for a steady decrease in unemployment in all sections of the country as the year progresses.
In reporting on St. Louis, the department took note of the bond issue voted by the city in February, adding that in addition the city would spend more than $2,000,000 on street work during the year. In view of the $25,000,000 private building program scheduled to get under way by May 1,
the department predicted a marked increase in the demand for skilled labor. A greater call for office help during the month was noticed.

Virtually all St. Louis industries showed substantial gains in employment over February. Competent farm help was scarce, while the railroads, cement concerns and rip-rap
work on the Mississippi absorbed many unskilled laborers.

Of Missouri conditions the department says:
"Unemployment has decreased in all sections of the State, there being a scarcity of skilled workers in iron and steel, leather, and the building trades, with an acute shortage in the latter industry certain by the middle of April. Increased employment is reported in lead and zinc mines. The Farm Labor Bureau, United States
Employment Service, at Kansas City, announces a scarcity of competent farm help."

Reports on Missouri cities, other than St. Louis, follows: Greater Kansas City—Large building program, employing all skilled mechanics in this trade. Railroads drawing heavily on common labor,
and there is a demand for plumbers, plasterers and bricklayers. City street and sewer work quiet, but spring program greatly exceeds that of last year, with one project of $2,000,000 in improvements on the Blue River to begin about May 1. A shortage of competent farm help exists.

St. Joseph—Unemployment at a minimum and confined to unskilled workers, with good prospects for absorption of this class during ensuing two or three weeks. Big building program in sight for spring months. Crushed stone concerns will re-employ many as soon as weather moderates. Demand for farm help increasing, with only limited supply evident.

Hannibal—Shortage in building trades. Woodworking plants running overtime, other industrial plants normal. Crushed stone concerns
will re-employ many as soon as
weather moderates. Demand for
farm help increasing, with only limited supply evident.

Springfield—Building program progressing at a rate sufficient to take care of all skilled workmen, although a small surplus of common labor exists. Railroad shops show increased employment over a month ago. Local manufacturing plants employing normal forces.

Joplin—Outstanding factor in absorption of labor is the resumption of lead-mining activities, and a shortage of miners prevails. Supply of skilled labor in building lines
about equal to demand and industrial plants operating at normal.

STAMP COLLECTORS AID U. S.

Pay $41,000 Into Treasury in Three Months Through Philatelic Agency.

By the Associated Press.

Washington, April 12.—Postage stamp collectors poured $41,000 into the treasury of the United States through the Postoffice Department's philatelic agency during the first three months of the year for unused postage stamps to add to their collections, principally stamps of the new issue.

The money received not only is officially clear profit for the Government, but it would pay several times over the entire cost of preparing the new issue of stamps,
which was about $5500. No estimate can be made of stamps sold to collectors for their collections
through the regular postoffices, but the amount is thought to be considerable. Since the Government decided to encourage the collecting of postage stamps and established its philatelic agency here in December, 1921, approximately $100,000 has been taken in through its sales.

Clerk Killed by Robber.

By the Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 13.—Ernest Engdale, 33 years old, employed in the store of the San Francisco Jewelry Co., was shot and killed last night by Antonio Smith, 19, when,
according to witnesses, the youth attempted to hold up the place. A policeman who captured Smith before he could leave the store said Smith told him he recently came here from Fort Worth, Tex.

Two Autos Burn With Garage.
Fire at 1 a. m. today in a garage at the rear of 4588 Shaw avenue destroyed a 1929 touring car and a 1929 sedan. The machines were owned by Hyman Feldman and Martin Wolf. Firemen reported to the police that they found the taillight in the sedan burning and presume that a short circuit in the ignition system set fire to the garage. The building was valued at $500.

TIRE MOTORISTS, ATTENTION!

WORLD COURT LAID TO POLITICS

Senators Who Aspire to Presidency Against Proposition of Harding That America Join Tribunal.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE.

Special Washington Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Just why the question of America's joining the World Court should become an issue at this moment is the biggest puzzle of the hour to the Harding administration.

The talk of a break in the ranks of the Republican party is not mere talk. It has a basis and there is some going on under the surface which can be discerned by the naked eye. The merits of the World Court problem are not the real issue at all—it is merely the vehicle for the expression of dissenting views by those who are anxious to prevent the renomination of President Harding by the Republican National Convention.

In the so-called "irreconcilable" element in the American Senate are several aspirants for the presidency. They have not taken kindly to the Daugherty prediction of no opposition to Mr. Harding's renomination. They are not exclusively "old" men. Hughes and Hoover, who from the beginning, have sided with the League of Nations, are not over-looked at the prospect of seeing them going around the country reflecting the administration viewpoint on so delicate a political subject as international affairs.

Secretary Hoover just made a speech at Des Moines on the World Court and Secretary Hughes is about to fire an opening gun, so to speak, in the project, which was submitted in the closing hours of the last session of Congress.

Tactical Plan Is to Wait. But why all this now? Is the question asked on every side. Even if the country were to express a preponderant opinion in favor of the World Court, no action could be taken till next December, when the Senate meets. And if the project hasn't an overwhelming Republican sentiment behind it, the tactical move for the administration to make is to wait till next December, when Democratic support will enable it to get the court protocol through the Senate with the necessary two-thirds vote.

So the answer to the puzzle is not to be found in the administration's projection of the issue at this moment, but in the line of attack taken by the opponents of the project. Who have nothing else of a concrete character on which to invite the Harding administration into the line.

If the President does not take up the challenge and let the World Court matter slumber till the next Congress meets, he will take away from his opponents their main hope for the administration to make a move. Some of the President's advisers have told him that and have also said that he ought to make only casual references to the World Court on his forthcoming Western trip. To go up and down the country affirming and reaffirming his stand on the World Court, it is contended, would only be a confession of weakness and would divert public attention from the main things Mr. Harding has to say.

Johnson to Speak Up. The moment Secretary Hoover made his Des Moines speech, Senator Borah was ready with an answering statement. Senator Hiram Johnson is due from Europe on June 1 and he will have some more things to say about the World Court. Senator James Watson of Indiana, Republican, is known to have been somewhat disappointed that the President picked Harry New to be Postmaster-General, disappointed because he was on the opposite side of the fence in Indiana politics and looked, therefore, like a wallow in Watson.

Others who may not care much about the World Court itself are bound to use the discussion as something to pick on politically.

That's why the administration is being urged to let the matter drop after Secretary Hughes has his way and to do no more about it till the Senate meets in December, when enough votes can be mustered to dispose of the last session.

This is all predicated on the assumption that the ostensible opponents of the court will let the controversy subside.

Opposition Is Political. If they do not, the administration will find the true character of the opposition to be political and some friends of the administration are saying it will be the easiest way to demonstrate why American membership in the court is being fought.

Membership in the World Court is not an urgent matter. No question can be submitted to the court unless the two or more interested nations will give their consent. Any nation, whether a member of the court or not, can submit a question. The only thing the President has asked is that America assume responsibility for payment of the expenses of the court, a relatively trivial sum, and that the United States take part in electing Judges.

But Judges have been elected without American aid and the elections take place once every nine years, so there is nothing urgent in the whole business. Then why all the fuss now, seven months before anything could be possibly done about it by the Senate? It isn't customary for members of Congress to argue about things so far in advance.

The real reason is the political rumormongering in the Republican party, which is going on in an effort to wear out the President's determination about 1924. Most of the politicians admit this to be a fact and that's why the moves of the game in the next few months will be watched.

Requiem Mass for Stain Prostate. (Copyright, 1923.)

ROME, April 13.—The Pope sent nine Cardinals with Vanutelli, dean of the Sacred College, and Gasparri, the papal secretary of state, and Mussolini sent two representatives to the requiem mass for Monsignor Butchavitch held in the Polish church yesterday morning. The whole diplomatic corps of both the Vatican and the Quirinal were present, with the exception of the German.

Reduce Those Dangerous Swollen Veins

Doctor's Recent Discovery Also Heals Boils, Carbuncles, Abscesses, and Open Sores in a Few Days.

Physicians are prescribing and hospitals using a new and harmless, yet very powerful germicide that not only causes enlarged or varicose veins and hunches to become normal, but also reduces pox, enlarged glands and wens.

Ask any first-class druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength), and refuse to accept anything in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces last a long time and furthermore if this wonderful discovery does not produce the results anticipated, you can have the price refunded.

It is not wise for anyone to allow swollen veins to keep on enlarging. Often they burst and cause weeks of pain, suffering and loss of employment. Start the Emerald Oil treatment as directions advise and improvement will begin at once. Your druggist can supply you.

THE POST-DISPATCH PLATFORM.

I know that my retirement will make no difference in its career principles, that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight demagogues of all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely printing news, always be drastically independent; never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

Shake Not Your Gory Locks at Us.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

THE different St. Louis newspapers have given a vast amount of publicity to the trial of several members of the United Mine Workers of America charged with complicity in the Heroin massacre. I have noticed that articles appeared in the daily papers quite frequently during the trial of these miners, and after the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty there appeared an editorial in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat severely criticizing the people of Williamson County because they had the moral courage to give the union miners a square deal, who had protected their homes from these imported gunmen who were shipped into their community by the mine operators to kill off union miners because they were insisting on a better wage scale in order that they could support their families according to American standards, which they have never been able to do upon the wages they receive. It is very noticeable to anyone who has given any thought or study to the industrial question that the workers cannot expect any substantial degree of justice from the Associated Press newspapers.

When we view with deep concern the great amount of publicity given to the Heroin trials, where it appeared that the union miners were able to hold their own against their enemies, and the small amount of publicity given to the Harrison (Ark.) trouble, where a union miner was taken out and hanged by a drunken mob, that was brought into town on a special train of the M. & N. A. Railroad. It is a well known fact to all of the Associated Press newspapers that a special investigating committee selected by the Arkansas Legislature has been meeting in Little Rock, Ark., practically continuously since Gregor was lynched and other citizens who showed any signs of sympathy for the working railroad employees were taken out and whipped and some of them driven out of town and their personal property destroyed.

Very little information has appeared in the daily papers as to the evidence given by the different witnesses who appeared before this committee, which goes to show that when the capitalists of industry get the best of organized labor the newspapers remain silent, but the matter is just reversed when organized labor is holding its own. There is only one way that the people who have in Liberty, Freedom and Justice will ever be able to learn the truths of the Harrison, Ark., affair, and that is by establishing and reading their own papers.

A Reading Railroad Shopman.

D. S. and the Letter Carrier.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

I have been reading about this daylight saving until I am sick of it. We had it before, and I do hope people will get enough sense to leave the good old sun and clock alone. I am a letter carrier. I go to work at 6 a. m., and have to get up at 4:30, and if the daylight saving was in effect I would have to get up at 3:30, going to bed at 10 p. m. would give me 5 1/2 hours sleep, and that is not enough for any letter carrier that carries a load and walks up steps all day.

I would suggest that this gentleman that likes to hoe in the garden and loves to get up so early, do his hoeing early in the morning and get the benefit of his early rising. Let's hope the Aldermen will use good judgment and leave the clock alone.

Fighting a Minimum Wage.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

"HIGH COURT holds wages cannot be fixed by statute." O. indeed, how could a high court dare to fix wages, dare to decide upon a minimum scale? Dare to interfere with our uncontrolled kings, such as Gary and Vandenberg? What would become of justice and liberty then, if the people's Government—as I understand our Government to be—would fix minimum wages by statute? Justice Holmes' opinion that the Congress has a right to meddle "when there is danger that labor conditions" lead to ill health, immorality and deterioration of the race does not seem to be approved by those aforementioned uncontrolled kings. Or is the low wage which forces men, women and even children to do an unbearable long day's work, as in Gary's steel plants for instance, perchance not included in those "labor conditions" that lead to ill health, and, amongst the women workers, also immorality?

How can there ever be any doubt about such right of our Government? Has ever an attorney protested or disputed about the "Government's" right to meddle with the striking workmen and women who build to better their labor conditions and improve their relative wages by means of strike? What right has the Government to meddle then and forbid picketing of strikers, and take away the strikers' money fund, as has been done—yes, and send the strikers to interfere with the "equal rights to get best terms"—when it is not able and not supposed to fix a minimum scale of wage for its sons and daughters?

RUDOLPH PHILIP.

OUR BROKEN-DOWN COURTS.

Willie Crowe, gunman, gangster, confessed burglar, who was shot to death by gangster companions, was called "Lucky Bill" because he had escaped from the hands of the law after repeated major crimes, with little or no punishment. The cognomen was well chosen.

The Crowe record illustrates the futility of law enforcement against criminals in this city. Crowe was arrested five times for burglary, pleaded guilty twice, was convicted and sentenced once, but his punishment was limited to two sentences in the workhouse of six months and a fine of $100. The record does not reveal whether or not he served the length of his sentences. He may have been "Lucky" enough to be paroled.

On his first arrest for burglary, with ample evidence to convict, he was permitted to plead guilty to a charge of destruction of property and was sentenced to the workhouse. The excuse for this mild treatment was the refusal of the victim to prosecute "Lucky Bill's" partner in crime because the latter had tuberculosis. Bill shared in the good fortune of his sick pal.

On his second arrest he was convicted on clear evidence and sentenced to the penitentiary for five years, but another criminal, who had penitentiary sentences aggregating 40 years, intervened and pleaded guilty of the crime for which "Lucky Bill" was indicted. The substitute cynically remarked that another five years added to 40 wouldn't make any difference, as he was sick and wouldn't last long. "Lucky Bill" was released from the sentence. His pal was soon paroled on account of illness.

On his third arrest for burglary "Lucky Bill" was again permitted by an easy prosecuting officer and an easy Judge to plead guilty to a minor charge and was sentenced to the workhouse. No account was taken by the prosecutor or the Judge of his previous record, which stamped him as an habitual criminal. The other charges of burglary were mere incidents. At the time of his death he was out on bond for having in his possession the tools of his profession of burglary when arrested in connection with a gang murder of which he was suspected. It is probable that he would have continued practicing his profession with profit and impunity if he had not fallen foul of a more efficient, if not a higher, court—the court of criminals—where he was adjudged guilty by a jury of his peers and promptly executed.

How many burglaries and other major crimes "Lucky Bill" committed we do not know. His arrest for five, his plea of guilty, his known criminal life, indicate that his crimes were many. He was a professional criminal, preying upon the community, a menace to the life and property of all citizens. But he slipped easily through the meshes of the law, enjoyed immunity from any punishment severer than a couple of short sentences to the workhouse, which are jokes, and in freedom and ease practiced his criminal profession until the vengeance of his pals for some violation of their criminal code put an end to his successful career.

In the face of this convincing evidence of the futility of law enforcement in the St. Louis courts, supported or encouraged by the higher courts, the Judges of which give more weight to a trivial error in the lower courts than to a volume of damning evidence, need one wonder that crime flourishes?

The police, at the risk, sometimes with the loss of life, pursue and arrest professional criminals who are living on robbery and murder—arrest them repeatedly, with evidence of guilt—but the criminals suffer no punishment; they slip through the courts and out of the penitentiary.

These mockeries of justice fully explain the crime wave. Crime is a safe, paying profession. The courts have broken down.

THE GANNY LABORITES.

Americans who are mystified at the spectacular parliamentary successes of the British Labor party will appreciate the situation better when they understand that the Laborites, unlike the Socialists in America, are led by men of conspicuous ability—men who are, in fact, quite the equals of any other party leaders in debate and floor strategy. To approach the Labor party in leadership, the American Socialists would have to enroll among their numbers men like Senators Borah and La Follette, along with such present leaders as Debs, Hillquit and Berger.

As an illustration of the shrewdness with which the Laborite attacks are devised, we quote from a recent article written for the New York Call by Philip Snowden, the Laborite who proposed the famous resolution to substitute Socialism for capitalism in Great Britain. Borah Law's Government several days ago presented its naval and military appropriation bills, which Labor vigorously attacked. Snowden wrote:

What a commentary this is upon what the people were told during the war. Then the only menace to the peace of the world was German military and naval power. Now that power has disappeared, and yet Great Britain, in the fifth year after the armistice, must needs spend 50 per cent more on armaments, though she is in alliance with all the great naval powers, could the failure of war be more eloquently confessed? Whether one agrees or disagrees with this sort of argument, there is no denying its wonderful persuasiveness with the common man and taxpayer. It is the sort of attack, unrelentingly carried on, that has made Law's "tranquillity" administration one of the least tranquil in history, and which explains the predicament of the British Government and the British fear of a Labor Cabinet.

HERBIN AND HARRISON IN PRINT.

The striking shopman whose letter appears elsewhere on this page shows a lamentable absence of discrimination when he charges that all newspapers have condoned the outrages at Harrison, Ark., while condemning the massacre at Herbin, Ill. Various newspapers have differed widely in their news and editorial treatment of the two cases, but to include the Post-Dispatch in this sweeping denunciation is grossly unfair and inaccurate.

Staff correspondents of this newspaper were sent to both scenes. Their work was attended by difficulty, and at Harrison particularly, by actual danger. Nevertheless, all the available facts of importance were published, and followed by emphatic editorial comment. In proportion to the magnitude of the two events, more space was devoted to Harrison than to Herbin.

The Post-Dispatch condemned the crime at Herbin, not as an act of unionists, but as a crime. It condemned the lawlessness at Harrison, not as the conduct of nonunionists, but as lawlessness. To us there was no issue of unionism or nonunionism, only an issue of order and disorder, of lawlessness and peace. In both instances we deplore the failure of justice to punish the guilty. In both cases there had been provocation, but in neither case did it justify the crimes that followed. What reasonable man can find fault with such a position?

BORAH'S TANGENT.

Senator Borah is strongly in favor of a world court, but not the particular world court connected with the League of Nations, which is the court recommended by the President and advocated by Secretary Hoover. In connection with his particular court involving the recognition of international law Mr. Borah demands that the nations get together and outlaw the institution of war for any purpose whatsoever, and that disarmament be immediately effected accordingly.

Mr. Borah must know that his proposition cannot be adopted or even taken seriously at the present stage of world development. Why, then, does he agitate it? Is it because he recognizes that his original platform of isolation is untenable and because he desires a refuge that will not put him in the position of reversing himself on the League of Nations?

What the world needs is a beginning of international action to ally suspicion, prevent war and stabilize economic and social conditions until the nations get a new start, when the lessons of experience can be further applied to organization for peace. A scheme to abolish war by fiat at a single stroke or other proposals setting forth the personal opinions of one or a few will not help the cause of world salvage. They can only delay and imperil it.

The Conning Tower

"And the Only Tune"—
The Star, the weather roof,
Forecasts up on the Whitehall roof,
And the tune I'd like to hear him play
"Fair and Warmer for Today."

Only five partners were worn out by Miss Alma Cummings in her 27-hour dance. Miss Cummings, it is said, changes partners without stopping, owing to the fact that the partners are of the new detachable, non-ender type. Mr. Walter Mead, engaged for five and a half hours, probably his billing will read "30 minutes without a blowout."

Still, the poetic dance record remains with Wordsworth, whose pleasure-filled heart was partnered by the Daffodils.

SPRING IN ST. LOUIS.
Horace: Book I, Ode 4.
"Solivitur accis hiems grata vice vixit et avon."

No more chill November breezes,
Ancient history coughs and sneezes;
Soothing, soft, caressing zephyrs
Waft the smell of pigs and heifers.

We amid our dews and damps,
Scan the news from training camps,
Thrilling till the Pruitt youth
Whiffs the one and only Ruth.

Social whirls begin to whirl
And the saps begin to stir,
Tearcup jugglers snuffle surf,
Golf fanatics whale the turf.

Now the shipping clerk his gill
Seeks when finished with his till,
Gangling striplings start to stir,
Out to cut a wicked ripple.

In the parks, Marie and Nancy
Try to catch the young man's fancy,
Which in this peculiar season
Oversteps the bounds of reason.

My Winter's had its fling,
Come again the gentle spring!
Which, dear Sextius, should remind us
Folks will soon walk slow behind us.

Discovered, by Barneyes, Redundant
Rita's Cousin, Topsy Turvey:
"Salutations and greetings," she said,
"And how are your kith and kin?
Me? I'm just dandy and fine."
Topsy was a fear, would make us tired and sick.

Their Pride and Joy,
At meals, when, bursting with bones
I pull a pun unknown to Hood,
Broadly my mother smiles and shows
Her food.

And when I (if this is a bore, Don't read it) sing: "I'm Sorry,
Dear,"
Down drops a y father to the floor
A tear.

Mine is the meat around the bone,
Mine are the raisins sans the nut,
(You've guessed it) I'm my parents'
Only Son.

What Pinerio has done in "The Enchanted Cottage," is seems to us to be reverse Wither's proposition;
or, rather, to write a corollary. In the play, Love causes two consecutively plain persons to be so blind-or so clear-sighted, if you prefer—that they see great beauty in each other. The Pinerio vision of Wither would be:

Shall I write about in pain
Just because a woman's plain?
Shall I love her any less
For her dull unloveliness?
Is she plainer than the weed
Growing in a flowery mead,
Which does not plain to me,
What care I how plain she be?

There are more persons, it seems to the Conning Tower's vital statistician, who know enough to come in out of the rain than there are those who are wise enough to remain out in the sunshine. F. P. A.

COL. JAMES EDWARDS' FUNERAL

Was United States Senate Doorkeeper for 42 Years.
Funeral to be held at the Post-Dispatch.
The funeral of Col. James T. Edwards, 61 years old, for 42 years doorkeeper of the United States Senate, was conducted yesterday from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank H. Meier, near Forest Hill. He died at his home Wednesday. The burial was in the family cemetery on the farm on which he was born.

Col. Edwards served in the Confederate Army and was also in several Indian campaigns. He was a member of the Missouri Constitutional Convention in 1875. A son, Walter Edwards, formerly was chief of the Federal Income Tax Department in St. Louis.

MUSICAL LEADERSHIP FOR U. S.

Author Says Boys of This Country Will Be Symphony Players.
CLEVELAND, April 13.—American boys are rapidly preparing to wrest the musical leadership from Europe, it was implied by some musicians in addresses before the National Music Supervisors' Conference here today. The future will come from the ranks of American boys, Glenn H. H. Wood, director of the School of Music at Oakland, Cal., said, in addressing more thorough study of instrumental music in the schools. Thomas J. Kelly of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music said he had "no patience" with his European friends who bewail that "the United States is peopled by the uncultured and have no capacity for the arts."

Mrs. Theodore C. Flint, a recent bride, was formerly Miss Maude Dziatko, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo C. Dziatko of Webster Groves. She was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta at the University of Missouri. Mr. Flint was educated at Washington University. They were married in the First Congregational Church of Webster Groves by the Rev. Dwight G. Bradley.

John L. Roemer and Miss Ariel Gross are being entertained in Jefferson City for the week-end, the occasion being the radio concert by Lindenwood talent this evening from the State broadcasting station. Those taking part include Misses Gladys Sullivan, Esther Hund, Ruth Alexander, Rachel Strong, Louise Clark, Laura Estelle Meyer, Jean Rankin and Velma Pierce. The girls were guests at luncheon today of Miss Patti Hendy, a former student of Lindenwood.

Mrs. W. E. Sauer of 6809 McPherson avenue was hostess at a bridge luncheon today for 30 guests. On Saturday night of next week and the same night of the week following Mrs. Sauer will entertain friends at dinner parties.

The engagement of Miss Minnie Laventhal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Laventhal of 5307 Waterman avenue, to Paul Robert Coffman of Dayton, Pa., was announced yesterday at a bridge luncheon given at the Gatesworth Hotel. Covers were laid for 40 guests. The wedding date has not been set.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Steinberg of 4166 Russell avenue have departed for an extended visit in California.

The engagement of Miss Minnie Laventhal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Laventhal of 5307 Waterman avenue, to Paul Robert Coffman of Dayton, Pa., was announced yesterday at a bridge luncheon given at the Gatesworth Hotel. Covers were laid for 40 guests. The wedding date has not been set.

Mrs. Vivienne Lang accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sig J. Lang, 6146 Pershing avenue, on their annual trip to French Lick Springs, Ind.

Mrs. Wilton Lederer of 5723 Kingsbury street is to marry, where she will attend a wedding.

PAUL FRIESS, PIANIST, AND RAYMOND KOCH, IN RECITAL

Programs of Both Include Compositions of Modern Composers—Large Audience Attends.

Paul Friess, pianist, and Raymond Koch, baritone, gave a joint recital before a large audience last night at the Wednesday Club Auditorium, Taylor avenue and Westminster place.

The program of Mr. Friess was not so designed as to give much opportunity for the subtler qualities of piano playing, such as poetical expression and emotional interpretation; but there was abundant occasion for a display of technical resources, nimble fingering and control of dynamics.

His program included compositions of Mendelssohn, Brahms, Chopin, Rachmaninoff and Liszt, with an excursion into the modernism of Debussy, Griffes and John Alden Carpenter.

The element of illusion was present in his interpretation of "The Lake at Evening" by Griffes, and there was feeling in his playing of Paderewski's Legend.

Mr. Koch gave an interesting program, ranging from Handel, through Wagner and Verdi, to such present day composers as Rachmaninoff and Cyril Scott. He was in excellent voice, and sang with the keen sense of the meaning of the text that has so often characterized his public appearances. In his interpretations he relied not only on dramatic delivery, but also on a colorful use of the voice.

ST. LOUIS ORCHESTRA GIVES 2 CONCERTS IN BIRMINGHAM

Ganz, Gustoff and Other Members Receive Warm Ovations in Southern City.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 13.—Two Birmingham audiences yesterday were able to appreciate fully the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, whose acquaintance, already had been made through the agency of the Post-Dispatch radio station.

Rudolph Ganz, Michel Gustoff and the entire orchestra were given ovations unparalleled in the musical history of Birmingham when they appeared at the Jefferson Theater under the auspices of the Birmingham Music Study Club.

Conductor Ganz demonstrated that he preserved all the qualities of a critic. Michel Gustoff, concert master and solo violinist, played with feeling and expression. At the matinee concert his rendition of Saint-Saens' minor concerto was especially pleasing. Carolyn Lazari, contralto soloist, was given an ovation equalled only by that accorded Giovanni Martinelli.

MISS SALLIE F. SCRUGGS' WILL

Bulk of $300,000 Estate Left in Trust.

The will of Miss Sallie F. Scruggs, 56 years old, who died March 29 at her home, 2617 Olive street, was filed yesterday. She made specific bequests totaling about $10,000 to relatives and a bequest of $2500 to the Liberty Presbyterian Church at Bedford, Va.

The remainder of her estate, said to be worth $300,000, is left in trust of the St. Louis Trust Co. for the benefit of a niece, Miss Mildred L. Kinnier, of Lynchburg, Va. Miss Scruggs was a sister of the late Richard M. Scruggs, one of the founders of the Scruggs-Vandervoort-Barney Dry Goods Co.

DEATH OF JAMES S. KUHN

He Had Been Connected With Coal Company 31 Years.

James Stewart Kuhn, 55 years old, president of the Devoey & Kuhn Coal Co., wholesalers, died suddenly of heart disease at 7:30 o'clock last night at his home, 3809 Castleman avenue. He had not been ill.

The funeral will be held at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow at an undertaking establishment at 3621 Olive street, with burial in Bellefontaine Cemetery. The Rev. Dr. John L. Roemer, president of Lindenwood College, will officiate.

Kuhn is survived by Mrs. Kuhn and two daughters, Mrs. George Mellow and Mrs. R. Wesley Mellow. He had been connected with the Devoey & Kuhn Co. 31 years.

Aunt Hagar's Blues

A deep blue fox trot that's just made for dancing

HANDY is the man who invented blues, and Handy, the composer, plays them as no other can. There's a mean, groaning strain in this record that you don't run into every day. It's just another case where Okeh Records demonstrate that their great success is due to better reproduction.

FACTS IN CREED MURDER CASE REVERSAL RULING

vision by the jurors. And although he did not impress Judge Hall, his complaint touched a responsive chord in Commissioner Davis, who wrote that Judge Walker, who concurred in the Creed opinion, had laid down the rule in Missouri in a previous case. "That such demonstrative evidence was admissible within the discretion of the trial court to convict the accused with the crime, to prove the identity of the deceased, to show the nature of the wound, or throw any relevant light on a material matter at issue." "It must, however, appear that the discretion was not abused. In Judge Walker's case and the present case, there was no question about the identity of the deceased, the nature of the wound, its location, character or fatality. We cannot see now the exhibition of the clothing before the jury could have tended to confuse the accused with the crime more than another. The former's evidence located the wound as well as its size and course. The only effect of the exhibition of the clothing was to inform the jury."

About Self-Defense. Harvey complained of Judge Hall's instruction on self-defense which in part stated that "the law of self-defense is emphatically the law of necessity, and does not imply the right of attack."

"There is sufficient ambiguity in this sentence to constitute error, in that a jury may gather its meaning as prohibiting an attack by the accused as a means of defending himself, in which it is misleading, the Commissioner found."

Imperfect self-defense, upon which Judge Hall refused to instruct the jury, is that vestige of justification retained by one who has engaged in a difficulty for an unlawful purpose, which, however, is short of a felony. Such a person cannot claim the sanctuary of self-defense, but can claim "imperfect self-defense."

"Such an instruction should have been given in the Creed case, Davis said, because evidence in the case, although indicating that the brothers provoked the quarrel in the bar, failed to show a felonious act prior to the patrolman's use of his club, but did show that they were forced to defend themselves from a felonious attack."

Defendants Not on Stand. Although the defendants did not take the stand, and hence could not have admitted in the trial that they did, the court in one of its instructions wrote that "the defendants admit the shooting and wounding, but claim they acted in self-defense."

Assistant Attorney-General Henry Davis, who briefed and argued the case for the State on appeal, endeavored to cover this phase by pointing out to the court that, although there had been no direct admission of the shooting, the entire defense of the Creeds was on the theory of self-defense, for which that very instruction was offered, and that such a theory involved a tacit admission of the shooting. The court, however, declared the instruction to constitute error.

Attorneys explain that this error doubtless crept in inadvertently through the almost universal custom of opening self-defense instructions with the sentence complained of, habit possibly having proved stronger than recollection of the specific facts in this particular instance.

And so the conviction has been overturned. Rob and Tom Creed have a new lease on liberty and the majesty of the law must try again to enforce its dictum, "thou shalt not kill."

"If We Can't Convict Creeds, We Can't Convict Anyone," Judge Hall Says.

"I haven't read the Supreme Court opinion and don't know exactly upon what grounds the trial court verdict was set aside," Circuit Judge Hall said today, "but I have sufficient knowledge of the case to say that if those two men can't be convicted, we can't convict anyone."

Judge Hall presided at the Creed trial and it was on alleged errors in his rulings that the Supreme Court reversed and remanded the case for a new trial.

"There is only one solution of the problem presented by this case: the Supreme Court must cut out adherence to so many technicalities. It condemns the courts and judges down here for error in the record. You can't take any member of the Supreme Court and sit him down here to rule spontaneously on cases, in which the best criminal lawyers are contending, and have him maintain a perfect record. It's getting so there isn't a chance on earth to sustain a lower court verdict in the Supreme Court. It is getting worse and worse on the question of technicalities."

"I understand the opinion holds that the admission of an instruction on self-defense was error and worked against the interest of the defendants. That instruction was offered by attorneys for the defendants."

"The decision, I hear, also holds the admission or exhibit of the clothing worn by the dead man was prejudicial error. The best evidence in the world of the number of wounds suffered by the dead man was the clothing showing the bullet holes. Of course, if the clothing had been admitted and waved before the jury merely to prejudice that body and not to establish any definite fact, that would have been a different question."

"Use of clothing as evidence, in the manner followed in this trial, is a common occurrence. There was a recent Illinois Supreme Court decision on that point which held that there was not objection to the exhibition of the clothing."

GLOOMY SKIES CLEAR FOR VETERANS' PARADE

Father of President Harding Marches With Missouri Division at New Orleans.

By the Associated Press.
 NEW ORLEANS, April 11.—With a bright sun dissipating the overcast of the morning, the hosts of gray swung into line at noon today for the annual parade of the United Confederate Veterans in reunion here.

It had rained all night and up to 1 p. m. it appeared as if the parade would have to be called off. The sun broke through the clouds, however, at 10 o'clock and the skies were clear when the veterans and other organizations set forth from the starting point on St. Charles avenue.

The head of the procession reached Canal street at noon and passed while a detachment of the "Washington Artillery of New Orleans," which fought in the Mexican, Civil, Spanish-American and World wars, fired a salute of 15 shots.

A participant in the parade was Dr. George Tyron Harding, Surgeon-General of the Grand Army of the Republic and father of President Harding, who is the guest of Gen. A. B. Booth, commander of the Louisiana division, United Confederate Veterans. Dr. Harding accepted the invitation extended by Major-General Archibald A. Pearson, commander of the Missouri division, to march with that division.

Reuben Patterson, 37, of Florence, Ala., was in line. Reuben is one of the gray-clad darlings here as a duly elected delegate from the Florence camp. He has attended every reunion of the veterans, and cast his vote yesterday for Memphis as the 1934 reunion city in order that he might journey down "Beal street" next year in search of "old folk" he used to know.

Many of the veterans retired early last night that they might be refreshed for the parade. Others felt the appeal of social life and hundreds of them attended the grand ball in their honor.

They concluded their business sessions yesterday with the election of Gen. William B. Haldeman of Louisville as commander in chief for the ensuing year and decided in favor of Memphis, as against Dallas, for the 1934 reunion city.

Dr. Harding, in an address before the reunion yesterday, declared that he wanted a reunion of the Blue and the Gray in Washington next year, if possible. He said his son was a true friend of the South, adding: "Thanks to the Southern people for the kindness with which they have treated my son. The South has never had a better friend than Warren G. Harding."

Dr. Harding said he considered Robert E. Lee one of America's greatest Generals and he planned to place a wreath on his grave when he returned East. He said he felt kindly towards the South, and stated that his grandmother was a cousin of Jefferson Davis' mother.

Joint Reunion Plan Tabled.
 A veteran with long, snow white hair and a beard, yesterday handed up a resolution, which would have ordered the appointment of a committee of three Confederate veterans to meet a similar committee from the Grand Army of the Republic to perfect arrangements for joint reunions in the future. Shouts of "Not in a thousand years" were heard on all sides and the resolution was tabled without a second.

Gen. Julian S. Carr of Durham, N. C., retiring Commander-in-Chief, during a discussion yesterday of the term "Rebel" as applied to Confederate soldiers, shouted at one point: "I am a Rebel and a Ku Klux, too."

At the afternoon session, he loudly repeated the phrase and this time shouts of "I am, too" came from all quarters of the auditorium.

The convention adopted a motion forever banning the use of the terms "Johnny Reb" and "Rebel" by Southerners when referring to former Confederate soldiers.

VOLSTEAD TELLS PRESIDENT GOODBY; SHUNS CAMERAMEN

Spectators Cheer Race Between Dry Law Author and Photographers.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Andrew J. Volstead, author of the Volstead act, dodged photographers and shunned interviews yesterday, while saying goodbye to official Washington at the White House. The Minnesota Representative, defeated in the last election by a man who claims to be drier than Volstead, declared he was returning to his "home town," where he will practice law on "Main street."

Emerging from the executive offices at the White House, Volstead declined to discuss rumors that he may be appointed Federal Judge in Minnesota, saying he had merely said goodbye to the President. The dry-law exponent lengthened his stride and the picture men, handicapped by their machines, were unable to establish contact. Spectators cheered the race as Volstead waved his hand and walked swiftly out of the White House grounds and out of public life.

HENRY KOERBER ESTATE VALUED AT $193,486

Property Goes to Son, With Exception of $5000 to Niece in Germany.

Henry Koerber, 82 years old, who ended his life March 5 in his apartment at 4114 McPherson avenue, left property valued at $193,486.85, as shown by an inventory filed yesterday.

It consists of personal property amounting to $118,486.85 and realty appraised at $75,000, the realty being at 1104 Olive street.

Koerber bequeathed his estate to his son, Harry G. Koerber, of Hampton Park, St. Louis County, after giving $5000 to Marie Kerker, a niece, in Hanover, Germany.

The will was made in 1907 and it is not known here whether the niece is still alive, as she has not yet communicated with Leo Rasmussen Jr., attorney for the estate, who wrote informing her of her inheritance.

On the day of his death Koerber sent his housekeeper, Mrs. Lollie Carroll of 5607 Ertel avenue, to the Mercantile Library for some books.

When she returned an hour later she found him dead seated on a chair in the bathroom, with a bullet wound in his left side and a revolver on his lap. Mrs. Carroll said that Koerber had been acting strangely.

He formerly was in the furniture business. He was a widower and lived alone.

FOOD SENT BY AIRPLANE TO STRANDED MOTORISTS

If Machine Cannot Land in Everglades, Supplies Will Be Dropped.

By the Associated Press.
MIAMI, Fla., April 12.—Food for the 12 Fort Myers motorists stranded in the heart of the Everglades was started to them this morning when an airplane, piloted by Capt. Walter Carr, left for Fort Billy Roberts Camp located at Pine Ridge (called Pine Island by hunters).

The plane carried sugar, coffee, bacon, flour and canned goods, and also cigarettes and pipe tobacco. If it is found impossible to land, the plane will fly low and the food will be dropped.

The party left Fort Myers a week ago Wednesday in an attempt to cross the Everglades in automobiles. The journey has been a series of bridge building and roadmaking, according to those who arrived here.

NOW—
A Written Guarantee to Grow Hair

Costs Nothing
Unless we grow hair, the Van Ess 3-bottle treatment is absolutely guaranteed. You are the sole judge. The warrant is signed by your own druggist. All we require is his signature showing you have purchased a 3-bottle treatment. If it fails, we refund your money. Hence you assume no risk making this test.

No Hair—No Money is our proposition

We have a new method of treating the scalp. It grows hair. It stops falling hair. Under actual recorded tests it grew hair on 91 heads in each hundred treated.

This is to offer it to you. Results are guaranteed. If we fail, it costs you nothing. Your own druggist signs the guarantee—we assume the risk.

The name is the Van Ess Liquid Scalp Massage.

Infected Sebum
According to authorities, over 95% of all hair troubles are traced to infected sebum. Sebum is an oil. It forms at the roots of hair. Its natural function is to supply the hair with oil.

But frequently it becomes infected. It takes on the scalp. It plugs the follicles and chokes them. It forms a breeding place for bacteria—germs by the millions feed upon the hair and destroy it.

It invites semi-baldness. Some total baldness follows. But it seldom kills the hair root. Remove the infected Sebum—normal hair growth usually follows. This is scientific fact. We guarantee results in writing under 3-bottle treatment plan.

Now Science Overcomes It
The Van Ess treatment combats the infected sebum and removes it. It penetrates to the follicles of the hair. It revives dormant hair roots and generally grows new hair.

We urge you to try it. Obtain it at your druggist's under 3-bottle treatment plan. Your money returned if results are not obtained.

CAMPAIGN FOR FRENCH TOUR OPENS NEXT WEEK

Employees to Contribute Funds to Send St. Louis Business Women on "Good-Will" Trip.

A group of business and professional women of St. Louis will be sent on a four weeks' "good will" tour of France, according to a plan presented by Miss Anne Morgan, daughter of the late J. Pierpont Morgan and first vice president of the American Committee for Devastated France, during a visit here Wednesday and yesterday.

The plan is one for raising money for the committee Miss Morgan represents. "Votes" will be in the form of contributions to the committee, which is still carrying on rehabilitation work in 139 villages of France. A gift of $1 means 10 votes. Raising of $10,000 will mean one young woman will go on the tour, the next $5000 will send a second tourist and there will be another one for every additional $5000. Surpluses of votes for any individual will be transferred to other candidates.

Candidates will be selected by primaries among the employees of industries or organizations, or by heads of businesses. Any self-supporting young business or professional woman, more than 18 years old, is eligible to nomination by an industrial concern, bank, mercantile establishment or civic organization.

The "good will election" will be opened formally next week. It is hoped to complete it by June, so that the successful ones may join the committee's third "good will tour," sailing June 30. Headquarters will be opened at Hotel Statler, in charge of Miss Morgan's representative, Miss Grace Axtell. A luncheon for Miss Morgan was held at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday, at which Melville L. Wilkinson was chosen chairman of the local committee in charge of the election and Carl F. G. Meyer, vice chairman.

Miss Morgan departed for the East last night and will sail April 25 with the second "good will tour." A number of St. Louis establishments have indicated they will take part in the local election. The purpose of the tour is creation of a broader understanding between France and the United States. A small part of the money collected in the elections pays for the tours.

SAVES TURKS SEEK U. S. TREATY

By the Associated Press. CONSTANTINOPLE, April 13.—The Akhram says it learns the Turkish Government expects soon to enter into negotiations with the United States for a treaty. The Turks will approach the Americans at the Lausanne conference, the paper adds. It also intimates that tentative parleys with Rear Admiral Mark Bristol, the American High Commissioner in Constantinople, already have taken place.

DIES ON GALLOWS FOR MURDER OF WOMAN

Former Convict Maintains to Last Innocence of Crime for Which He Was Hanged.

By the Associated Press. FLORENCE, Ariz., April 12.—Paul V. Hadley, an ex-convict from Oklahoma, died on the gallows before sunrise today for the murder of Mrs. Anna C. Johnson. The trap was pulled at 5:10 o'clock and Hadley was pronounced dead at 5:22.

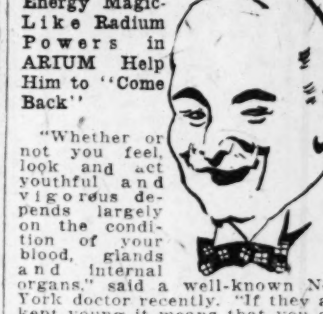

The condemned man maintained to the end his claim of innocence of the crime for which he was executed. He met his fate calmly.

Hadley was convicted of killing Mrs. Johnson, when she and her husband were giving him a lift across the Arizona desert in their automobile.

Hadley mounted the platform without hesitation. He had eaten no breakfast, but had dressed with deliberate care.

Like a Boy at 50—Full of Vitality

Life, Vim and Energy, Magic-Like Radium Powers in ARIM Help Him to "Come Back"

"Whether or not you look and act youthful and vigorous depends largely on the condition of your blood, glands and internal organs," said a well-known New York doctor recently. "If they are kept young it means that you are young. But as a result of worry, sickness, overwork or late hours you may be like an old man in many ways before you are 30, yet with the revitalizing power of radium in your body you may be young in feeling and appearance at 40, 50 or even 60."

"So definite is the action of the radium element in ARIM that it goes right to work the minute it enters the body and sets up healthy functioning of the blood, glands and organs almost immediately. You often begin to feel this amazing revitalizing influence on your system within only 24 hours' time. Yet it is so harmless that even a child may take it with perfect safety. Signs of weakness, nervous disorders, high blood pressure, stomach and intestinal trouble, sleeplessness and general debility usually disappear with amazing rapidity and you fairly radiate strength, power and magnetism."

Hadley's First Conviction Was for Murder Committed by His Wife.

Paul V. Hadley was an automobile salesman in Beaumont, Tex. In 1914 he eloped to Oklahoma City with a nurse, taking with him the firm's car, which he sold, keeping the money, with which he subsequently started a picture show in Kansas City.

Early in 1915 he was traced to Kansas City and arrested on a charge of stealing an automobile. The Beaumont Sheriff, Jake Giles, was sent for him, and as he was being taken back to Beaumont, Mrs. Hadley, who accompanied the Sheriff and her husband, killed Sheriff Giles on the train, near Checotah, Ok.; compelled the conductor to stop the train, and took her husband off.

Tried at Muskogee.

A posse the following day captured the couple about 18 miles from the railroad. They were tried at Muskogee, Hadley receiving a life sentence, and his wife being acquitted on an insanity plea. Mrs. Hadley rallied at the judge, protesting that she was the guilty one and pleading to be sent to prison.

"I will kill myself if you separate me from the man I love," she cried.

The judge thereupon sentenced her to 10 years in prison on a charge of having assaulted a guard in the jail where she had been awaiting trial. On that occasion she attempted to kill the guard and liberate her husband.

Two years ago Hadley was released from prison to perfect an invention, but never returned, and the next heard from him was his arrest for the Arizona murder.

Molto

REDUCING CREAM

"My dear, how did you get so slender?"

"YOU looked so different only a few weeks ago! And now you seem years younger! What have you been doing to yourself?"

And you can truthfully answer that you have hardly done a thing—except use Molto—a most remarkable reducing cream. You have hardly changed your habits of living, you have enjoyed the good things of life—you haven't starved yourself to flabbiness or exercised to exhaustion. Not at all! You have simply used the newest discovery of science praised by thousands of women everywhere.

Molto is a delicate, fragrant, rose-tinted cream. You simply rub a little of this cream on the place or places you wish to reduce—be it hips, bust, chin, thighs, ankles or elsewhere. Rub for five minutes and repeat this treatment each evening.

Now, all fat is directly under the skin. Molto is absorbed by the pores and literally melts away the fat. With this treatment you reduce where you want to reduce and nowhere else. Your skin becomes smooth and clear and your muscles firm.

You can have a slender, graceful figure, you can have greater beauty, you can have better health, brighter eyes and a lighter step when you have rid yourself of this terrible burden.

It's so simple, so easy, so convenient to use Molto that you shouldn't tolerate excess fat another day.

Shop at your department store, drug store or beauty shop today and ask for Molto Reducing Cream. It costs only $5 for an 8 oz. jar. Begin using it to night. It will be the happiest day of your life when actual measurements show that you have gained the slenderness, the grace, the admiration, that is every woman's natural right.

It's absolutely harmless!

FREE—Write for valuable booklet on reducing by the Molto Method.

KIEL 'NOT HEATED UP' ABOUT GOVERNORSHIP

"The Boys Can Keep on Running Me if They Want," Says Mayor on Return.

Mayor Kiel returned from Excelsior Springs this morning to meet questions regarding his race for the Republican nomination for Governor, under auspices of E. L. ("Liv") Morse, "paymaster" of the Lowden Missouri campaign fund in 1929, with a smile and meaningless emotions.

"I'm just going to let it run along," the Mayor said. "The boys can keep on running me for Governor if they want. I'll not stop them. The primary is a long way off and I'm not going to get heated up about it."

However, the Mayor did explain how he happened to be in the race with Morse as his sponsor. "I met Liv on the street in Excelsior Springs the other day," related the Mayor. "He asked me how long I was to stay. I told him I wouldn't leave for a few days, so he suggested a dinner party at his house. He invited quite a few friends and we all had a good time singing and dancing. Then we had some speeches. Morse made one, nominating me for Governor. Everybody thought it was a joke, but a newspaperman happened to be present and sent out the story."

Mayor Helps Lay Bricks.
There was a speculative suggestion put forth today that Morse's nomination for the Mayor for Governor be an expression of gratitude because the Mayor helped lay brick at a building in Excelsior Springs which Morse is having remodeled. The Mayor formerly was a bricklayer.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have.

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician.

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headache, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets daily for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for colonic—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.

a fact of which he is proud, and he wanted to show the folks at Excelsior Springs he is still proficient. He peeled off his coat and began handling brick and mortar in a manner which quickly attracted a crowd. When someone identified him to the onlookers, a rush call for a camera was sent out. The Mayor ducked before the camera arrived.

One of the Mayor's first official acts on his return was to write a letter today accepting an invitation to act as judge of the Missouri State Fiddlers' Contest at Paris, May 24. The Mayor wrote that he was certain he would make a good judge because he knows nothing about fiddling in general or Missouri fiddling in particular. But, he added, he has acted as judge in many contests, from picking movie beauties to babies, so believed he could pick a fiddler, especially if assisted by Mayor Cronwell of Kansas City and Gov. Hyde, who also have been asked to be judges.

Marble Contest Suggested.
It had been suggested that the three officials stage a marble contest. The Mayor wrote that he was "some marble player as a boy," but suggested that if Gov. Hyde and Mayor Cronwell could "make his weight," he would rather engage in a pinocchio contest. Mayor Kiel weighs 219. Both Gov. Hyde and Mayor Cronwell are slenderly built, the latter also being short.

Henry L. (Hank) Weeks, Nat. Goldstein, Alkerman August H. Niederluecke of the Nineteenth Ward and License Collector Chapman also spent the week in Excelsior Springs. They denied any political significance in the trip. The Mayor said he walked about 50 miles during the week in addition to his own exertions.

ASSERTS 'PARLOR PINKS' OBTAIN GARLAND FUNDS

Gompers Declares Labor Bureau Was Refused Aid for Its Stand Against Radicalism.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 13. — Because the Workers' Education Bureau, an organization of the American Federation of Labor, is not "definitely committed to a radical program," the American Fund for Public Service, Inc., has refused to include this bureau among beneficiaries in its outlay of the $800,000 fund turned over to it by Charles Garland of Boston, out of the rejected inheritance from his father.

Samuel Gompers, president of the labor federation, in making public a letter from the Garland fund organization refusing a request for the education bureau, charged in a statement last night that the Garland money was being used to "bring together an interlocking network of pacifist and revolutionary organizations of more or less extreme character. The request, Gompers said, had been made as a 'test' to determine to what purpose the Garland inheritance was being put.

An investigation of the organization and the connections of its trustees, Gompers said, had served to link it with "perhaps 50 or more of the leading pacifists or pro-bolsheviks and parlor pink organizations," and to "reveal to some extent the ramification of revolutionary propaganda and influence in the United States."

Among the directors of the Garland fund, Roger Baldwin, Robert Morse Lovett, Scott Nearing, William Z. Foster and Sidney Hillman. Mr. Gompers said, had been more or less constantly associated with radical labor and other organizations which the American Federation of Labor has opposed as "subversive of the best interests of American citizenship."

Attack "Plain Nonsense," Says Roger Baldwin.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, April 13. — Declaring that the attack of the American Federation of Labor, in view of the facts was "plain nonsense" and "the product of some more of the red hysteria which seems so easily to affect the minds of otherwise level-headed folks," the American Fund for Public Service, Inc., to which Charles Garland of Massachusetts left his $1,000,000 fortune, last night, made public a statement of the fund's operation for the first six months of its existence to Jan. 11 last.

"The facts stated are in themselves sufficient answer to the charge of the American Federation of Labor that we are a 'revolutionary organization,'" said Roger N. Baldwin, secretary, in making the statement public. "The statement of financial activities says: 'Among the larger loans were one to the United Mine Workers of $25,000, which was repaid; Brookwood Labor College, Katonah, N. Y., $10,000; Minnesota Daily Star, bonds purchased, $25,000; Oklahoma Leader, bonds and mortgage purchased, $17,000; Labor Defense Council, Chicago, for the defense of the Michigan criminal syndicate case, $10,000; the Labor Bureau, Inc., New York City, for working capital, $7,000.'"

Lee Again Heads Confederate Sons.

By the Associated Press.
NEW ORLEANS, April 13. — W. McDonald Lee was re-elected Commander-in-Chief of the Sons of Confederate Veterans yesterday. He defeated R. H. Richardson, Commander of Camp Beauregard, New Orleans, by the vote of 243 to 51. Lee was said to have been supported by the Ku Klux Klan faction.

Gov. Small Plants Oak Tree.
By the Associated Press.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 12.—Recalling that Illinois once was one of the great forest areas of the country, Gov. Small today officially celebrated Arbor day by planting an oak tree on the Capitol grounds. The Governor reminded citizens of the State that "reforestation of the State is a worthy movement in which all can render lasting service to posterity."

Put on Flesh—Look Younger

Most thin folks usually look much older than they really are—their faces are marked with ugly lines and wrinkles—the skin is dry and drawn tight over their bones—their dispositions are often nervous and irritable, and they frequently imagine themselves the victims of all sorts of ailments. But once you try the new healthful natural way to put on firm flesh, enrich the blood and increase energy, what a rapid change takes place! The whole secret is in properly turning the food you eat into solid flesh, muscle and red blood instead of letting it pass through you like sand through a sieve—leaving practically no tissue-building nourishment whatever in your body. You can easily prove this for yourself by simply taking with each meal two of MARTIN'S VITAMIN TABLETS—weigh and measure yourself before you start, and then watch the amazing gain each week. Unless you are delighted with the steady improvement in the way you feel and look, the small amount deposited with your breakfast for the trial will be promptly refunded. By this the famous general health-building action of MARTIN'S Vitamin has been proven in thousands of cases. It should be used by anyone who DESIRES to having their weight increased by several. At all good druggists.

POTOMAC ATTACK RESULTS IN VERDICT UNDER ACCIDENT POLICY

Jury Decides C. E. Vrooman Is Entitled to $1992 Insurance Recovery of Illness in 1921.
—Claude E. Vrooman, 5930 Washington avenue, a real estate dealer, yesterday obtained a jury verdict for $1992.39 in Circuit Judge Hamilton's court against the Royal Indemnity Co., on an accident insurance policy. Vrooman said he contracted ptomaine poisoning from eating rabbit Jan. 2, 1921, and was confined in a hospital until March 29 of the same year. While in the hospital an operation was performed on him. When he made claim under the policy the company refused to pay, contending that the insurance did not cover the illness, which was asserted to be a recurrence of alleged chronic stomach trouble. Vrooman also had claims against nine other accident companies out of these were compromised after the Court of Appeals ruled in a similar proceeding that ptomaine poisoning is in the accident class.

MRS. DOROTHY HICKEY MARRIED

Mrs. Dorothy Anheuser Hickey, 3622 Longfellow avenue, widow of Dewey Hickey and daughter of the late Adolph Anheuser, was married yesterday to Theodore C. Honig, 6429 Cates avenue, salesman for an investment brokerage company. They departed immediately afterward on a motor trip to Chicago and will be gone about a week. Friends had not been told of their plans. The bride left a note advising relatives. Dewey Hickey died in 1915. Mrs. Honig has three sisters.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre At Once

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. You hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur restores its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Witch's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recognize this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, leaving one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

$27,236 VERDICT FOR INJURY GIVEN AGAINST CHASE ULMAN

Boiler Maker's Helper Had Sued for $50,000 Because of Brannock Hotel Accident.

A verdict of $27,236.25 was returned yesterday by a jury in Circuit Judge Miller's court in favor of Paul Contine, 25 years old, of St. Louis County, against Chase Ullman, on account of an injury to his left arm and hand in an accident Nov. 1, 1921, at the Brannock Apartment Hotel, 5370 Pershing avenue, of which Ullman was owner.

Contine, who is a boiler maker's helper, was in an elevator pit anchoring a brace for the purpose of moving a boiler from the basement when he was struck by an elevator which was in operation. He sued for $50,000 damages, alleging negligence on the part of the defendant. Ullman denied liability, contending that plaintiff was guilty of contributory negligence in entering the pit and further that he had warning of danger.

Ullman, who said he formerly practiced law in Porto Rico, aided his attorneys in making an argument to the Court on a demurrer and won praise from Edward W. Foristel, attorney for the plaintiff, for his presentation of the law. Ullman recently sold the property for a price said to have been $1,200,000.

SMALL SEAPLANE GIVEN TRIAL

Motor Stalls After Machine is Taxied About for Some Time.

By the Associated Press. CLEVELAND, O., April 13. — A military seaplane, said to be the smallest in the world, which was developed for the Government at the Glenn L. Martin Co. plant here, was given its first test in Lake Erie here yesterday. The motor stalled after J. Scott Williams, test pilot, had taxied around for some time and the plane was taken back to the Martin hangar. It will be tested again today.

The plane is so small that it could be stowed away in a submarine or destroyer, it is said, and launched many miles from shore. It measures 18 feet between wing tips, is 17 feet seven inches long and is eight feet high. It is of all-metal construction, only the wings and fuselage coverings being of fabric.

The World Aghast As Red Russia Mocks Christendom

IN MOSCOW, at 4 o'clock in the morning of March 31, Monsignor Butchkevitch, Vicar-General of the Roman Catholic Church in Russia, after a night of brutal tauntings and torture, was led down into the cellar beneath the Cheka building and shot to death. This execution followed a trial of fifteen Catholic priests which included, besides the Vicar-General, Archbishop Zeplack, on the charge, according to dispatches, of "opposing the Soviet Government." The Archbishop was also sentenced to death but as a concession, it is said, to the religious sentiments of the Russian peasants, his sentence was commuted by the Central Executive Committee to ten years' imprisonment.

Protests and pleas for clemency from Protestants, Catholics, and Jewish organizations in all parts of the world, from the Pope and from the governments of Great Britain, the United States, France, Italy, Spain, Poland, and Czecho-Slovakia, had no effect in staying the death sentence.

"The formal protest of America, the nation that fed some millions of Russians starving a few months ago, stirred Moscow to a peculiar rage," says the Philadelphia Public Ledger. "It was the strange frenzy of the arrogant, ungrateful beggar whose belly had been filled and whose sores have been washed. In the eyes of millions of people over the world, Red Russia has stamped herself as the anti-Christ with the mark the beast set on her brow."

This latest action of the Soviet government has aroused the indignation of the entire Christian world and may have far-reaching consequences. Read THE LITERARY DIGEST, this week, April 14th, for the expressions of public opinion in America and the view-point of the Russian government toward the attitude of the world at large.

We Hope That in His Training Work This Time, Jess Willard Has Exercised Something More Than His Ingenuity

Browns Believe Team Is Strong Even Without George Sisler; Players Eager to Defeat Cards

Morale of Fohlmen After They Are Told the Truth, Is Better Than When Sisler's Case Was Deep Mystery—Many Stars of First Rank Still on Roster.

By J. Roy Stockton.

"We know the worst now. It's up to us to fight. We're not worrying. It's too late to worry. What we have to do is get out there and hustle. We still have a great team and a fine chance."

That's the attitude of the Browns, after being kept in the dark throughout the training period, now realize that it may be months before George Sisler can return to his first-base position. In the South the Fohlmen did not know anything about the Sisler question. In one word they would hear that George was on his way to the camp. In the next that would hear that George never again would play baseball. Then as the squad was leaving New Orleans on the last leg of the spring exhibition tour those who play with the truth exploded a farewell bomb. Lee Fohl was quoted in a dispatch from New Orleans to the effect that Sisler would be able to play in the opening game, that he had been training steadily and that a sore muscle was the only thing that kept him from camp.

Now the Browns know that George's condition is serious; the team will have to get along without his services for at least six weeks and possibly the entire season. The bad news has been digested and the Browns have decided that they still have a great ball club.

Many Stars on Roster. It is not George as great as any shortstop in the league? Is not Johnnie Tabin the greatest place hitter, the best drag bunter, one of the best throwers in baseball? Is not Kenny Williams the champion home run hitter of the league? Don't the Browns' pitchers compare favorably with any pitching staff in the league? Did the Browns go to pieces last year when Urban Shocker, reputed to be the whole pitching staff, had to go to the hospital? They did not. They went out and won 10 games out of 12.

These were some of the things brought out in conversation among the Browns when they had realized the truth—about the Sisler situation for a time without Sisler. Previously they had been worrying about how serious the Sisler illness might be.

There was plenty of snap and life in the workout yesterday. Kenny Williams was nursing an injured knee. He scraped the bark off the knee sliding into third at New Orleans. But the other knee, hurt in Mobile, is no longer bothering Williams and he celebrated the return to St. Louis by slamming a ball into the right field seats on his first appearance in batting practice.

Fohl gave the recruits a long workout, starting at noon, and then the regulars appeared. There was batting and fielding practice. Manager Fohl paid special attention to Cedric Durst, the new first baseman, and Eugene Robertson, third sacker. Durst was coached in batting. Cedric has a powerful punch to right field, but he is not mousing the ball properly. Fohl diagnosed his trouble and Durst soon saw what was wrong. He spent the afternoon trying to correct his swing, and when he connected properly he was sending the ball on a line to the right field fence. Durst is ideal material with which to work. He listens attentively and strives to execute instructions.

Brownson Want to Win. Manager Fohl may take the abbreviated spring series with the Cardinals lightly, but that is not the case with the players. The Browns.

Sisler Talks at Baseball Dinner

First Sacker Speaks Hopefully of His Early Return to the Browns' Lineup.

George Sisler, first sacker of the Browns, was the guest of Phil de Catesby Ball, president of the Browns, at the Raquet Club's annual baseball dinner last night.

Sisler made a short talk to the members and their guests, in which he expressed hope that he would be able to return to the Browns' lineup at an early date.

Sisler stated that the sinus operation which he expects to undergo might be postponed a day or two, until conditions were favorable.

Telegrams and letters of sympathy are being received daily by George Sisler expressing the hope that he will soon be ready for combat service in the American League. One from the "Big Ten Club" of Cleveland, O., is typical. It follows:

"Cleveland Big Ten Club, representing alumni of Big Ten universities, expressed sympathy with you in your present infirmity and hopes for a speedy recovery which will permit you to get back into the game and insure your right to hold the title of the American League's greatest ball-player."

Sisler attended Michigan University, a member of the Big Ten.

How the Browns and Cardinals Will Bat in Spring Game Tomorrow

BROWNS. Robertson 2b. Gerber ss. Tabin rf. Williams lf. McManus 2b. Jacobson cf. Severed c. Durst 1b. Shocker, Vanslender or Pruett.

CARDINALS. Blakes lf. Smith cf. Hornsby 2b. Bottomley 1b. Stock 2b. Myers cf. Lavan ss. Clemens c. Sherdel p.

Fohl has not decided definitely whether McManus or Jacobson will bat fifth. Rickey's lineup is on the assumption that a right-hander will work. He may start Fredlin at short instead of Lavan. If Sherdel does not pitch for the Cardinals it will be Jeff Pfeffer.

every one of them, want to win those games tomorrow and Sunday. Here's a sample of the spirit. Johnnie Tabin brought forth a bat that he had been nursing for two years, reasoning it. He used it in batting practice and was lining the ball to all the fences.

"If you're going to rest in the safe until Saturday," said Johnnie Tabin, "I'll hit you with the piece of wood. And into the clubhouse he went, to hide the bat. He wanted that piece of wood for the Cardinals games and put it away to avoid its being cracked in batting practice."

"I probably use four pitchers in the two games," said Manager Fohl, when asked about his hurling selections. "Vanslender probably will start with Shocker or Pruett finishing. Either Shocker or Pruett will work in the Sunday game and I don't know who the fourth hurler will be."

With one possible exception the batting order will be the same as in the late spring exhibition games. Robertson will lead off, with Gerber second, Tabin third and Williams fourth. Jacobson has been swinging fifth, but Jake is notoriously weak at the bat in the spring and McManus may move to fifth place, in which case Jake will bat sixth. Severed will be in seventh position, with Durst batting before the pitcher.

As soon as Jacobson hits his best batting stride he will be moved back to fifth place.

"Dutch" Henry Reports. Another workout was planned for today, but the heavy rain of last night probably will make practice today impossible. However, the boys will not be given a holiday. There is so much space under the stands and if there is nothing else there will be throwing enough to keep the arms of athletes limber.

Frank "Dutch" Henry, southpaw who helped Mobile win the pennant last year and on the strength of that was a holdover while the Browns were training, reported yesterday morning and was signed to a contract after much conversation in which "Dutch" was on the receiving end.

Henry said he had been working out with the Cincinnati Reds at Orlando, Fla., since Feb. 12 and that he was in condition. However, that did not prevent him from running into a hot reception in the Browns' office.

He Has the Biggest Task in Baseball

CEDRIC DURST.

ON the shoulders of this modest little Texas youth rests a great burden. Here is the boy who must try to fill the shoes of the great George Sisler.

Cedric Durst was born in Austin, Tex., Aug. 23, 1899. He is 5 feet 11 inches tall, weighs 155 pounds and bats and throws left-handed.

Scouts first noticed Durst because of his extraordinary ability as an outfielder. Under the hot sun, in heat so intense that other outfielders had great difficulty in catching fly balls, Cedric ranged far and wide a certain catch, fast, earned and reliable. It was a tough assignment breaking into the Browns outfield. But he was retained as a utility fly chaser. Last year he was in only 13 games and batted 333.

This spring Durst looked longingly toward first when candidates for George's position were being tried. For weeks he edged in there whenever he could, playing with a fielder's mitt. Finally Fohl noticed him, called for a first baseman's mitt and put Cedric on first as an experiment. Cedric has played that in every exhibition game since then. He will play first base for the Browns until Sisler returns. And Cedric never will be sent back to the outfield. First base is his position.

"Durst looks more like Sisler, acts more like Sisler, than any other player we ever saw," was the comment of veteran baseball men who saw Cedric perform in the Southern exhibition games. And each day he has improved.

Pikers Play Ames In Double-Header

Bremser and Levy Will Pitch for Red and Green—Meet With Rolla.

Washington University will open its conference baseball season tomorrow afternoon at Francis Field when it opposes the Ames Cyclones in a double-header, beginning at 1 o'clock. The first game was scheduled for this afternoon but was postponed because of rain. A dual track meet with Rolla will be held in conjunction with the double header.

In spite of Washington's excellent pitching staff, Coach Davis' outfit does not at present look very impressive. Most of the players are inexperienced, and in the infield Capt. Maguolo is the only veteran. At that, Maguolo's regular place is in center field, from which he was transferred to fill Bobby Edgar's place at short.

The team has not been hitting its weight in recent practice tilts, probably because bad weather has given the sluggers a late start. However, the team should hit, as there are a number of waiters in the lineup. Bremser and Levy will hurl for Washington against Plousson and Durland.

Collegeians Rained Upon. HOUSTON, Tex., April 12.—Baylor-Rice game for Thursday and today canceled, rain.

Everett Scott Hurt; May Not Be Able to Complete Run of 1000

NEW YORK, April 12. FEAR was expressed by baseball fans today that Everett Scott, the Yankees' star, might not be able to achieve his ambition to play 1000 straight league games, because of an injury to one ankle, received yesterday in a game between the Yankees and the Brooklyn Nationals at Springfield, Mo.

He has played 984 consecutive games, a record never approached by any major leaguer.

Doubt was felt as to whether his injury would heal in time to permit him to play even an inning in the opening game next Wednesday. The ankle was wrenched when he was running to second base.

MELHORN ENGAGED AS PROFESSIONAL AT NORTH HILLS COUNTRY CLUB. Bill Melhorn, former Shreveport Country Club professional, who finished fourth in the national open tournament at Chicago last year, has been engaged as professional for the new North Hills Country Club which opens early in June. It was announced by officials of the club yesterday.

Melhorn has been before the golfing public since 1917. In 1920 he won his first title, the Oklahoma State open. He finished twelfth in the British open last year. A short time ago Melhorn tied with Walter Hagen in the Texas open championship and later lost the playoff to him by a score of 1 up.

Melhorn will succeed Louis J. Ham as professional at North Hills.

Floyd Johnson's Right Name Must Be "Confidence"

"If I Can't Whip Fulton, I Have No Right to Box Willard," He Will Tell Board.

By Bert Igooe, The Post-Dispatch's Eastern Boxing Authority.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Floyd Johnson and his manager, Charley Cook, will appear before the New York State Athletic Commission today and make a personal appeal to be allowed to go through with the bout with Fred Fulton in the Fourth Regiment Armory in Jersey City, before the young Iowa is called upon to meet Jess Willard at the Yankee Stadium on May 12.

Cook will ask that Johnson be released from William Muldoon's order that none of the boxers engaged to box for the Milk Fund may appear in any other bout before that date; that Johnson, in justice to his prowess and fighting future, may at least attempt the elimination of Fulton before he takes on Jess Willard.

There will only be one stipulation, when Cook and Johnson make their request. Johnson will ask that the bout with Fulton, set for next Monday night, be set back five days because of the fact that Johnson, on hearing the edict from Muldoon, stopped his training for Fulton. It would be the fair thing, says Cook, to allow Johnson to pick up where he left off five days ago, that he may be at his best for Fulton. Johnson argues that if he cannot whip Fulton he has no business in the ring with Willard or any right to accept a big guarantee when boxing for a charity like the Milk Fund.

In view of the fact that Johnson wants to go through with the bout, there is a possibility that Muldoon may waive the order in Johnson's case with a warning that if he is whipped by Fulton he will lose the opportunity to meet Willard. It may come about that Fulton, if he can stop Johnson, may get the match with Jess, with his event manager, Jack Bulger, manager of Mickey Walker, welterweight champion, issued a statement yesterday soundly condemning the New York Boxing Commission for its action in suspending him (Bulger) because of his failure to report to the board to explain Walker's alleged poor bout against Naphert in Buffalo recently.

Bulger claims he did not receive an official order to report to the commission. Bulger said that he did not intend to heed any order or commands from the New York boxing authorities, and that most of all, he would not pay any attention to matches made for his champion by the Gotham Athletic Club, which evidently takes the attitude that he, and not the New York Athletic Commission, is the manager of Mickey Walker.

WRAVY COLMAN

Now or Never.

Whether St. Louis is to have boxing, or that hybrid mauling and stalling pastime now masquerading under the name of boxing, was under discussion today at a meeting of the Boxing Commission.

This body, composed largely of business and professional men, and therefore men merely superficially acquainted with the inside and technical side of the game, has summoned before it Harry Sharpe, a referee of long standing, in his day a fighter of genuine merit and hero of the longest Marquis of Queensberry fight to end in a knockout.

The board wants to question Sharpe regarding his disqualification of Kaiser and to arrive at an understanding as to what its own policy toward enforcing the rules against hugging and hitting-while-holding is to be.

Speaks From Experience. THE commission can do no better than be guided by the advice of Sharpe, who has officiated in many parts of the world from Frisco to Paris. His long experience as a fighter and as an official should entitle his opinion to precedence over that of any individual member of the commission, hardly one of whom, with the exception of Harry Uhlenmeyer, could tell the world the difference between a right cross and a cross butt.

Sharpe's decision against Kaiser can only after repeated warnings in the ring and a preliminary announcement of what punishment awaited offenders. To permit Kaiser to get away with it was to open the gates for future offenses and for a weakening of Sharpe's prestige with the boxers.

Desperate cases require desperate remedies and the degeneration of St. Louis boxing certainly warrants heroic treatment, such as Sharpe administered. An example was needed. Kaiser was "it."

Read It in the Stars. WE understand, via the coffee grounds, that John Pesek is to be the next world's heavyweight wrestling champion. It is written, so the expert observers say, that Lewis' star is waning and that Pesek's is mounting.

This Omaha product, Pesek, last night tossed the "grand old man" Zibzyko and did a good job of it. Zibzyko had nothing left after Pesek flopped him for the first fall and was an easy prey in the second essay.

Pesek is not a heavy man, as compared with Lewis and Zibzyko. Probably he is more than 25 pounds lighter than Zibzyko and 36 pounds under Lewis weight. But he is all young, fighting tonnage, 190 per cent efficient. Lewis and Zibzyko belong to the school of wrestlers that believe in carrying more weight than a bay window.

Pesek will meet Lewis, unfortunately the match will probably be discredited because Pesek and Lewis are virtually under the same management. Pesek, Max Bauman, Lewis' manager had the Nebraska signed to a contract with Max Bauman, his brother.

Oklahoma Aggies Win. STILLWATER, Ok., April 12.—Oklahoma A. and M. College defeated Northwestern College of Wichita, Kan., in a dual track and field meet here yesterday by a score of 17 to 10. The events were run off in a down-pour of rain. The Aggie athletes led 10 firsts.

Fisher Opposes Waseem in Title Contest Tonight

Lightweight Wrestling Champion Defends Title Against Man From Whom He Won It.

Jack Fisher, lightweight wrestling champion of the world, will defend his title against Al Waseem, former champion, in a match this evening at the South Broadway Athletic Club. Waseem has been on the game for a considerable length of time, but has been losing seriously since he became wrestling coach at Washington University.

It was six years ago that Al Waseem and Fisher, who is exceptionally powerful for a small man, have been wrestling since his opponent, Waseem, only chance to win apparently was in a whirlwind attack. Waseem, betting his end of the purse that he will defeat Fisher.

There will be two other bouts on the card tonight. In the opening event William Deller of Maplewood, Me., Joe Sanderson of Detroit. The boys are middleweights, and the semifinal it will be Lloyd Carter and Joe Klingner, both local boys. The matches begin at 8:15 with George Baptiste as referee.

Cardinals Return For Spring Clash Won 16 Games

The Tiger Terrors Were Among Feel the Might of the Rickey Only Players Not in the

By Her...

After more than six weeks in were spent in battling major games, the Cardinals returned series of two battles with the Browns' Park, tomorrow. In the Cardinals did well, winning 16, losing percentage of 800. Two battle town, are not included.

Only two things mar the return of the National League entry. The recent injury to Max Flack is a hard blow to the club, as the former Cub was performing as well as any outfielder on the roster. He was hitting hard and timely against both right and left handers. Flack may come around in a hurry, and the he will be able to get into the game with the Browns. Lavan looks a great shape, and weighs 151 pounds.

Collection in Lavan's Place. If Lavan is unable to play, How and Freigan, the Ohio Wesleyan youngster, will cover the position and capably at that. If his work in recent battles means anything, the youngster has played in every battle this spring and has made but one error, that on a home from the outfield, which got through Stock.

DRINK WATER TO HELP WASH OUT
KIDNEY POISONIf Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Begin Taking Salts

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

"Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

Don't let that rash spread

Apply a little Resinol Ointment to the first bit of itching rash or patch of eczema and check it before it develops into a serious or stubborn skin trouble. It's amazing how quickly this soothing ointment stops itching, reduces inflammation and soothes and restores the skin to its normal healthy condition.

ATTACKS ON CHURCHES
Communist Youths Sentence
All Priests to Death.By SAMUEL SPEWACK.
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and the New York World.
Copyright 1935 by the New York World Publishing Co., the New York World and the Post-Dispatch.

MOSCOW, April 12.—Six hundred

Communist youths assembled recently in the luxurious Yarr Restaurant, once the haunt of the gaybloods of Moscow, and in an elaborate mock trial sentenced all priests

in Russia to death. Stereotypical slides revealing alleged dissipation

among monks and a lecture on the origin of all religions rounded out

the evening's entertainment. A resolution was passed urging the continuance of anti-religious propaganda

and deploring the continued belief

of the ignorant. The most recent attacks on the faith seem to be the closing of the churches and synagogues, but converts, in the correspondent's observation, are few.

From Rostoff-on-Don there are reports that three churches have been closed and converted into schools, and the big bells melted for agricultural implements. Throughout the determined efforts of the large

Jewish population there have been severe results at Minsk. During Easter

it was impossible to buy anything

except unleavened bread, despite all the efforts of the Government. Communist youths sought to occupy the synagogue but were unsuccessful.

Tikhon Spends Time in Prayer.

With this as a background, the trial of the Metropolitan Tikhon is shortly to begin. One who has seen him told the correspondent he is unmoved at the thought of coming to trial and spends most of his time in prayer and meditation.

Prosecutor Krylenko, the fiery nervous man of short stature and abrupt gestures, is gathering a mass

of briefs and evidence for delivery

of force the court which will meet in the colonial room of the former nobles' club, now headquarters for the trade unions.

It is all but admitted by the defense that Tikhon acted against theGovernment and favored the anti-soviet armies and in his relations with their representatives helped for their success. It will be easy for the soviet to establish proof of this and the whole question is what will be his fate.

Faces Fate of Butchkevitch.

It seems likely that he will suffer

the same fate as Mgr. Butchkevitch, the Roman Catholic. He is far more involved in anti-soviet activities and the only factor that may contribute to save his life is his age. His co-defendants, Rikander and Guriev, are equally involved. Their fate, as well as that of Tikhon, is a matter of speculation. Their guilt, in view of this treason trial, is naturally established beforehand.

The post, reportedly formulated

by Marquis Curzon, British Foreign Minister, certainly will go unheeded

in view of the fact that the soviet stands on its rights to try priests

without interference.
The anti-religious propaganda and the Tikhon trial are separate. One is run by the communist party and the other by the Government, but to the outsider the line of demarcation
is not clear.

How to Wave Hair to Appear Naturally CurlyApply a little liquid alimene with a clean tooth brush just before doing up the hair. This will impart a bright lustrous suggestive of "hidden sunshine," and the hair will have a delightful wave, perfectly natural in appearance, that will last for days. It will prove beneficial to the hair, instead of making it brittle and dead looking as the hot iron does. Instead of your tresses being mean and contrary you will find them quite easy to do up in any form, and there will be no
color, grease or stiffness about the hair.
Ask your druggist for a few ounces of the liquid alimene, which will require no washing.

CHAPTER I.

Concerning Certain Travelers and a Sleepy Man.

THE wind howled round the gable of "Ye Olde Whyte Hart." It moaned away into the distance, then, with a swirling shriek, it caught up the heavy drops of rain and dashed them viciously against the tiny window panes of the Inn.

It rattled the great bolts of the taproom door, and slipping in beneath it blew away the sawdust in a wide semicircle.

It whistled with a hollow roar across the chimney top, and every now and then a down-sweeping gust puffed a soft filmy cloud of smoke across the wide hearth into the oak-paneled room, accentuating the dimness of the light from its guttering candles.

"Ugh," grunted one of the men sitting before the blazing log fire. "Tis a blackguardly night, Benjamin. A plaguy night in very truth, my little fat friend."

He was a tall, loose-limbed fellow with small piercing eyes and thin hawkish face. A white scar ran from the tip of his nose to the top of his left cheek bone. A dilapidated wig was perched upon his bullet-shaped head, and long riding boots hung limply about his lean shanks.

He bent forward and turned over his great riding coat, which hung steaming across the back of a chair the better that it might dry before the blaze; then he leaned back once more, and, lifting his muddy feet onto the small table beside him, balanced himself on the back legs of his chair. This done, he proceeded leisurely to fill his long clay pipe.

There were only three other men in the taproom. One was a yokel who lounged against the bar, gazing stolidly into his big mug of foaming ale. He was dressed in smock and gaiters, with an old felt sun hat pulled well down over his rough red hair. Every time the wind whistled round the inn, he tugged his hat tighter on his head and with each patter of the rain upon the panes, he spat into the sawdust on the floor.

The second occupant was asleep in the far corner, one of his legs on the form upon which he sat, the other thrust well into the room. His back was half against the paneled wall and half against the window. His head hung forward on his breast, his chin and nose hidden within his folded arms.

Excepting that he was a man long of limb and big of bone, it would have been hard to describe him. There was his hat though, perched on the back of his head, that bespoke him as a traveler, since it was tall and furry, such as was more often seen in the Mall of London than in the taproom of a Kentish wayside inn, half a mile from the village of Seven-ocks.

The third man was obviously the companion of him who had cursed the weather. He was a stout little fellow, so burly indeed as to appear unusually squat. 'Twas plain that when he stood up, the skirts of his riding coat would almost trail upon the ground, and since his boots were too long for him, he had perforce to keep his legs stretched stiff, since he could not bend his knees. His face was as round as his body, and his eyes twinkled merrily in the firelight.

He was holding a huge pot of ale in his left hand, balancing it between copious drafts on his ample paunch. His right hand hung loosely upon a large pistol butt protruding from his crimson sash. He looked, indeed, a very merry man, with a mighty stern purpose before him.

"A dirty night, say you, Simon," he called blithely, "and why miscall the night. I'll warrant that many such a night hath brought blessings from your big mouth ere now. True, the wind doth howl, but noise ne'er hurt anyone. True, the bolts do rattle, but bolts are made to rattle, Simon, and by their rattle do they proclaim themselves as bolts to all who pass this inn, including any chance marauder who, hearing their rattle, needs must know the door is bolted, and thereby deem it worthless to expend his energy upon it."

Simon shook his ugly head dolefully. "Aye," he growled, "your foolish prattle may have a word of truth for once, but forget not, my fat Benjamin, that it rains also, and rain is wet, aye in sooth, 'tis very wet!" and again he turned over his coat.

Benjamin tipped his pewter pot to his lips.

"How so, prattler?" The rain that "Tis simple, Simon. The rain that rains without will never rain within, and, being within, we will can scoff at the rain without, considering only the good which it doeth to the fields, as yonder yokel well vouch. I'll lay me he welcomes the rain that will ease his plowing labors."

Simon looked at the yokel.

"Aye, he's welcoming it with its kind, each time he hears it. See how he spits. Methinks your rain without is raining within now, Benjamin," and he chuckled hoarsely.

"Simon Grapplelight, your wit astoundeth me," Benjamin said sarcastically. "You ought to drink this Kentish ale more frequent. 'Tis plain it stimulates your brain somewhat. And faith it needs it."

"Grr," growled Simon like a dog at bay. He leaned forward to turn his coat once more, then suddenly he sat up straight and stiff.

"H't! H't!"

Benjamin's head jerked up. His ears seemed to twitch themselves forward. His eyes turned to the door, all the sparkle gone from them, and his hand tightened on his pistol butt.

Was it fancy, or was that a clatter on the cobbles outside? What made the man sleeping at the window lift his head slightly? Was it possible that, hidden in the shadow, his eyes were not closed, but were watching the two men seated by the fireside? A guilty conscience sees an enemy in every man. Benjamin leaned towards Simon.

"See that man in the corner," he whispered. "Dost think he truly is asleep?"

Simon looked swiftly across at the reclining figure. A soft, rumbling snore seemed to throb through a second's silence in the storm.

The long man breathed easier. "Thy nerves are shaken, poor fool," he breathed, with an accompanying curse. "Drink up thy ale, man, 'twill help to steady thee."

Benjamin raised his mug once more, then suddenly lowered it again, as another warning "H't!" broke from Simon.

Clatter, clatter, went hoofs upon the cobbles outside.

There was no mistaking it this time. Some one was there. Horses were at the door of the "Whyte Hart."

Simon Grapplelight looked fixedly at Benjamin Greenleaf. Benjamin Greenleaf looked fixedly at Simon Grapplelight. The faces of both men tightened. Gone was the careless mien of a moment before.

"'Tis he," muttered Greenleaf.

"And another," growled Grapplelight.

"And mebbe more," sighed Greenleaf.

"'Twould lose our guineas," growled Grapplelight.

"The devil!" wailed Greenleaf. Something meant to be a smile contorted the long man's scarred features. He growled when he saw that the fat little fellow was shaking.

"Don't forget the hundred guineas 'Tis ours for the taking. One pistol shot straight and true is all that is wanted."

The thin lips formed the words, and the little man's shiver of apprehension became less apparent.

"You're sure you'll know him again," whispered Greenleaf.

"Aye," answered Simon. "I'd know him in a thousand."

At that instant, the door thundered beneath mighty blows. Above the uproar rose a man's voice; an impatient, powerful voice.

"Ho! landlord. Ho! man. The door—door! Unbolt, unbolt, quick man! Zounds, this rain."

With a scurry and a scuffle, Joe Watkins, the landlord, hustled into the taproom and hastened to the door.

"Who be there?" he called, with his red hands on the bolts, and his red nose against the timbers.

"Travelers, do!" came the reply, "and well nigh drenched by this accursed rain. Open man, quick, and there's good gold waiting for you."

Joe hastily unbolted the bolts, and the wayfarers entered.

There were two of them. One was tall and strapping, well made, and handsome of feature. His shoulders were broad, his body big, and his legs long. His face was clean cut—though in truth it bore traces of dissipation—his brow high and his hair black and crisp beneath his three-cornered hat. He wore no wig, but he was obviously an aristocrat. His finely cut and gorgeously broderided riding coat spoke to his high rank, and even were this not sufficient, there was no gainsaying the modishness of his wonderful cravat, or the costliness of his dangling cuffs of lace.

He was undoubtedly a dandy, probably from London or Paris, though withal a sturdy figure of a man. His age would be about 30.

Behind him came his servant—a stout-built fellow with expressionless face, red side-whiskers and redder nose. His hat was already off, and his hair was also red. He looked a man in the early thirties, and fully as strong as his master.

Benjamin Greenleaf viewed them askance from the corner of his eye.

"In faith, a hefty pair," he murmured, very softly.

"Grr-r!" growled Simon.

"Bid your hosteler see to our horses," said the dandy, "and bring us some of your Kentish ale—'tis warning, so they say, and by my snuff-box we need it. What say you, Peter?"

"I say zookers, 'twill be welcome, my lord. Aye, ziggers 'twill."

"And likewise zotters 'twill, and also zanders 'twill, Peter, my rascal," echoed his master, hurling a chair towards the fire and throwing himself down in it.

He shook the wet from his coat and threw it to his man, who spread it out before the blaze.

The dandy took a pinch of snuff from a jeweled box, and dusted his cravat with the fragment of gorgeous lace that served as a kerchief.

Simon eyed him narrowly.

"An ill night," he growled.

M'lord looked up quickly, and ran his gaze over the two men.

"Aye! friend," he said slowly. "It's an ill night—but 'twere well if it got no more ill, for we travel further tonight."

Simon lowered his lids, but Benjamin answered for him.

"'Twere hard to tell, master. Methinks myself the illest part of an ill night is the early morn."

The aristocrat laughed loudly.

"In truth you put it queerly, but what 'tis demmed true, friend. What say you, Peter?"

"I say zookers, m'lord, and I hope 'twill get no worse."

"And likewise ziggers, Peter! I echo thee!"

The landlord brought their ale, and they drank it in silence, the while Simon smoked and watched.

And none noticed that the yokel had left the inn as the travelers entered, and that the man asleep at the window had shifted his position, as if the latter to observe them.

"Dost tarry long here, master?" ventured Simon.

"'Tis time to give the nags a feed and a breath. Then on to Ovington—'tis but 10 miles. And you? Are you for London?"

Simon shook his head.

"We're but for Westerham," he said. "And faith, we must away if we're to reach our journey's end ere midnight."

He looked viciously at Benjamin, and the little fat man sighed.

"'Tis true," he growled. "We must away, and I was but getting comfortable, and settling in a doze before this fire."

Simon stood up.

"You've been in a doze well nigh all your life, porpoise," he growled. "As witness your rolls of fat. I pity more that as you ride upon tonight than you."

Fashion News Notes

ORNAMENTATION seen today on some evening frocks in Paris consists of 3 or 4 long chains of big beads, wound about the arm near the shoulder and fastened to the wrist. These glittering shackles are a decidedly brilliant addition to any costume.

LITTLE TOTS are bursting forth today in two-piece frocks, the skirts of which are made up of plaid material. The plaid is so huge in pattern that the diminutive skirt is both amusing and picturesque in effect.

KILTING or accordion plaiting is again—or still—extremely smart. Many coats and capes for spring seen in London have killed panels. Gowns are often made up altogether of fine plaiting, and lingerie, especially night robes, has a good deal of plaiting on it.

EARRINGS now dangle slightly below the shoulder and are of elaborate and eye-arresting designs and colors. Indeed, every day in every way they are getting brighter and brighter.

PRUNE PUDDING

TAKE 12 cooked prunes, one cup cold water, one-half cup sugar, one-half inch stick cinnamon, five-eighths cup boiling water, three tablespoons cornstarch, one-half tablespoon lemon juice. Remove meat from prune stones, add water, sugar, cinnamon and boiling water. Simmer 10 minutes, then add cornstarch, diluted with enough cold water to pour easily, and cook five minutes. Remove cinnamon, add lemon juice, mold, then chill and serve with cream. Recipe serves three.

BAVARIAN CREAM

YOLKS of 2 eggs, ¼ cup of sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla, ¼ box gelatine, ½ cup cold water, 1 cup milk, pinch salt, 1 cup cream.

Scald the milk. Soak the gelatine in cold water, add the beaten eggs and sugar, and pour over them the hot milk. Stir till well dissolved, strain and flavor. When the mixture begins to stiffen, add the cream beaten to a stiff froth, stir slowly till well mixed, pour into a mold wet in cold water. Let stand till firm.

The HAND of FASHION

Thousands of women all over the world have indicated their approval of silk gloves by wearing them throughout the spring and summer

MANY women have to count usefulness a valuable part of beauty; other women do it anyhow. They find both assets in Kayser Silk Gloves. Many smart women prefer them for warm-weather wearing.

A Choice of Styles

There are as many styles and colors found in Kayser Silk Gloves as there are whims of fashions. Long gloves, short gloves, and gauntlet styles for those who prefer them.

White gloves are worn frequently during the warmer days, in shades of gray, mastic or pongee, etc. You will find all the loveliest of these shades, as well as darker colors, among Kayser Silk Gloves. Every glove has the Kayser double finger-tips that insure long and satisfactory wear.

Clean Gloves

Silk gloves are cool-looking, and the hands that wear Kayser Silk Gloves are cool in both looks and feeling. A bowl of lukewarm water, a froth of mild soapuds, and you can wash Kayser Silk Gloves as easily as your hands. They must be washed carefully, as soap left in silk often destroys the fabric.

Look for the name Kayser to be sure getting the best in gloves, hosiery, and underwear.

BURGESS BEDTIME STORIES

Johnny Chuck's Bitter Disappointment

By Thornton W. Burgess

You'll find that oftener than not Disappointment is our lot.

—Johnny Chuck.

JOHNNY CHUCK stayed right where he was perched up in a tree until he saw Farmer Brown's Boy and Bowser the Hound disappear up the Long Lane. Of course, the thing he should have done was to have come down just as soon as he was sure that they were far enough away for it to be safe for him to do so. But, you know, Johnny had never been up in a tree before. He had never been up where he could look off and see such a distance. He began to enjoy the experience. Yes, sir, he did so. Now that Farmer Brown's Boy had taken Bowser the Hound away, there was no other danger that Johnny could think of. And so he sat there longer than was wise. He wanted to see just where Farmer Brown's Boy was going.

When at last he decided to come down he received a bitter disappointment. My, my, my! I should say so! There was someone waiting for him at the foot of that tree. It was someone he had no desire at all to see. It was someone with a sharp face; someone who showed long, sharp teeth when he grinned, and he was grinning now as he looked up at Johnny Chuck. It was Reddy Fox. So Johnny Chuck remained right where he was up in that tree.

How did Reddy happen to be there? Well, you see, it was this way: Looking across from the Old Pasture at the edge of the Green Meadows, he had seen Farmer Brown's Boy coming down the Long Lane. He knew that Farmer Brown's Boy was going to see what was causing Bowser the Hound so much excitement. He knew that Farmer Brown's Boy wouldn't have eyes for anything else. Neither would others who might happen to be near. Everyone would be watching Johnny Chuck up in the tree, and

"Good morning, Johnny Chuck, aren't you rather high up in the world?" said Reddy.

Farmer Brown's Boy drawing near.

He felt sure that no one would notice him running across the Green Meadows. Everyone would be looking the other way. So away he had gone, as fast as he could run, and this was very fast indeed. Straight across to that old stone wall at a point some distance from where Johnny Chuck was Reddy had run. There he had hidden in the bushes and waited. Just as soon as Farmer Brown's Boy had let Bowser away Reddy had stolen forward. And so it was that he was sitting at the foot of that tree when at last Johnny Chuck made up his mind to climb down.

"Good morning, Johnny Chuck. Aren't you rather high up in the world?" said Reddy, as he grinned more broadly than ever.

WHAT ABOUT THE ROCKEFELLER "SPOONING" INQUIRY?

The Post-Dispatch has received several letters of protest against the sending out of questionnaires by the Bureau of Social Hygiene of New York to women asking personal questions regarding their courtship days. This bureau was established by John D. Rockefeller Jr. Readers of the Women's Page are invited to discuss this interesting question in these columns. All letters should be brief and written on one side of the paper only.

Three Viewpoints

To the Editor of the Women's Page: The mooted subject of the Rockefeller Foundation's questionnaire must be discussed from three viewpoints: Its statistical value, its ethical justification and its "human interest" appeal.

The statistical value of a group of facts and figures, even after these have been carefully checked, is often asked Reddy, pretending to be very much worried.

Johnny Chuck said nothing, and Reddy tried to look anxious. "I'll wait right here to catch you if you do fall," continued Reddy. "It would be dreadful if you should fall and get hurt. Don't you think you would be better off down here? Climb down carefully and I'll wait for you."

Johnny Chuck simply glared and ground his teeth. Reddy grinned again, and it was a wicked looking grin. Then he turned and went over to a comfortable spot among the bushes just a few feet away. He looked up at Johnny Chuck, grinned again, yawned and then lay down and made himself comfortable. He pretended not to be watching, but Johnny Chuck knew that all the time Reddy was keeping his eyes on him. He was just as much a prisoner in that tree as he had been when Bowser the Hound was at the foot of it.

extremely doubtful and hazardous, because so much depends upon, first, the quality and quantity of the source; then upon the manner of presentation of these facts, and, finally, upon the interpretation of them, wherein enters the personal equation of he who vouchsafes to generalize.

The at-present-discussed questionnaires were sent to a selected group of women, which, per se, precludes generalization from their answers. And how about the accuracy of these answers?

Grant that those who did fill in the questionnaires were those who were willing to answer with a certain degree of frankness, secure in their anonymity, nevertheless questions of such intimacy in the private life of individuals, particularly questions involving their sexual life, are ones which they will often lie about, even to themselves.

A person will often negate similar questions to her physician at times when she has much to lose and nothing to gain by so doing, and even in spite of the fact that he knows she is lying.

Moreover, those most likely not to return the questionnaires would be those who have the most to confess. We may discount the few who purposely prevaricate, either jokingly or to make the answers "interesting."

Ethically, there is certainly nothing wrong in asking questions in privacy, to be answered anonymously, and even publication is not morally wrong, were good to come out of such an inquiry. But any deductions from these answers are not justifiable for the reasons already given against their statistical worthiness.

But in "human interest"—there is where their value lies. They certainly form an entertaining and instructive study of the present feminine psychological reactions, at least of a certain class of women of the present period. And the most entertaining of all will be the reaction of the mass of the so-called "human race" to the publication of the answers to these questionnaires.

Why Not Ask Men?

To the Editor of the Women's Page: Why the questionnaire for women and not for men? Why should the latter not tell of the spooning they have done and how far they went with it?

It seems that it is always the woman who is asked to give account, but that the man can go on unmolested. Perhaps it is for the oldtime reason that man is a privileged character.

Can you tell me of any reason why a man should expect to marry an angel, when he is anything but an angel himself? If men were asked to make out questionnaires and would tell the truth, I am sure there would be a great many of the replies that would be quite unfit for publication.

If we must have questionnaires, why not make it a 50-50 proposition? But why dig up the past at all?

EVERY woman likes to know that the mayonnaise she serves and eats contains fresh eggs. That's why making mayonnaise at home with Mazola has become so popular. You are certain it contains fresh eggs because you make it.

It's very easy to make the most delicious mayonnaise you ever tasted with Mazola. And think of it—you make it in 3 minutes!

Mazola-made Mayonnaise is delightfully smooth and creamy, and always firm and fresh. And it keeps longer without getting rancid or "separating out."

You'll find also that Mazola thickens your mayonnaise more quickly. This saves you considerable time and labor.

Why not use the Mazola you have, or get a can from your grocer, and try the recipe given here. Or use any good recipe you may have. See how simple it is to make perfect mayonnaise.

Mazola is packed and sealed in sterilized tins, on our own premises, under expert supervision. Your grocer sells it in pint, quart, half-gallon and gallon tins. The large sizes are most economical.

(See Recipe below)

3rd Minute:
Beat well for one minute and your Mazola-Mayonnaise is made

THERE is no better oil than Mazola for flavor, quality and purity—and remember it costs considerably less than imported olive oil.

Mazola is never sold in bottles or in bulk—as are ordinary salad oils.

We extend to you the privilege of using a can of Mazola. If not perfectly satisfied your grocer will refund your money without question.
